Anti-annexation petition in the works

Over the past several weeks, since Edmonton's Horizon 21 project surfaced to public scrutiny, we at the Gazette have had many inquiries from members of the public on all aspects of the matter. The latest, brought to us by St. Albert resident Dianne Sonnenberg, related to the possibility of starting a petition, a thought that had crossed our minds and undoubtedly the minds of many others as well.

Unfortunately, under the present set-up of the Local Authorities Board (LAB), no channels exist for presentation of a petition. However, Mr. Myroniuk at the LAB told the Gazette yesterday that "due to the circumstances of the Horizon 21 case, we are attempting to devise a procedure that would enable landowners to group together if they so choose." This new procedure would apparently make provision for St. Albert residents to petition the Board thereby letting their collective opinion known. Mr. Myroniuk said the new policy should be in place in about three weeks.

Mr. Myroniuk also said that any comments or concerns regarding Edmonton's annexation bid should be directed to the Board so that they may be considered during the decision-making process.

Dianne feels that there will not be a problem collecting several thousand signatures in St. Albert if enough concerned residents are willing to get out and circulate the forms. Anyone interested in lending Dianne a hand with this task is asked to give her a call at 458-6151.

Final MPC nod goes to Viscount

The members of Municipal Planning Commission heaved a collective sigh of relief on Tuesday when they wrote finis at the bottom of a long chapter in St. Albert planning history. A commercially zoned property at the corner of Gordon Crescent and Grandin Road "has been a problem for years," according to Mayor Ronald Harvey. However, the problem was satisfactorily resolved when the Planning Commission gave its approval on the last of a series of modifications to a project of Viscount Investments.

Viscount's proposal calls for eight duplexes to be developed on the site. Access will be gained by a service road at the front. The negotiations with the city involved a land swap between the city and the developer, but arrangements for the deal have been completed.

The commission approved a motion to recommend that council support the proposal.

RCMP hunting for flashers

The RCMP Detachment in St. Albert has received two complaints concerning males "flashing."

In both cases, witnesses could have seen the license plates on the vehicles in which the expositors left in, but did not take the time to do so.

This makes it extremely difficult for the RCMP to follow up the crimes, and the public is encouraged to try and get better descriptions of offenders.

As far as the flashing incidents go, the police have very little to go on, thus an arrest may not take place.

The local RCMP Detachment would like the help of the public, and would like residents to be more observant of crimes or anything that may look suspicious.

Growth must come in the Met Edmonton area The question is how Edmonton's request for a huge expansion of city limits, all of which they want under one municipal governing body will by its very nature be under consideration for a long time to come - perhaps years, before a final decision is handed down. In the meantime opposing municipalities will be presenting their arguments against the proposal, and at high costs. Based on previous Local Authorities Board hearings, we would estimate it will cost St. Albert at least a half a million dollars to present our case for maintaining our present and future boundaries, and our own identity.

In the interests particularly of recent arrivals to St. Albert, the Gazette will present a series of articles setting out background information and opinions from various quarters on the matter.

From the response of the people in the Edmonton Metropolitan area to Edmonton's proposed massive annexation, one attitude is emerging as common to all. Nobody wants to be part of a huge metropolis. St. Albert people want their community to remain small, so do people in Sherwood Park, so do people in Edmonton.

The other side of the coin is that the Edmonton area is certain to grow substantially, being one of two

OTTAWA VISIT

Liberal candidate Dr. Len Nobert was in Ottawa recently to discuss concerns of the Pembina constituency with Postmaster General Gilles Lamontagne (left) and Defense Minister Barney Danson (right).

Liberal Len Nobert ready to fight

Pembina Liberal candidate Len Nobert, a St. Albert dentist, has been gearing for the recently announced Federal election since winning nomination last spring. He has been to Ottawa on more than one occasion of late with the most recent visit centering on talks with Postmaster General Gilles Lamontagne and Defense Minister Barney Danson.

Mr. Nobert points out that his talks with Danson and other members of the Liberal cabinet on the subject of municipal taxes appear to have paid dividends with Finance Minister Chretien's announcement of a new municipal grants program. The new program, to be phased in over a four year period, will directly benefit this area due to a federally owned property - Namao Air Base. It provides for grants in lieu of municipal property taxes and should mean a significant boost to the MD of Sturgeon. Across Canada the grants will amount to a total of $25,500,000 during the four year period.

Mr. Nobert discussed the mail delivery situation with the Postmaster General and says he was assured that St. Albert and the Pembina area in general would not be neglected in the government's announced $13 million program relating to mail delivery improvements in new or expanding subdivisions.

He says he believes "with a confidence approaching certainty that Pembina will elect a Liberal in this election and notes that as he travels around the riding he senses a "strong disenchantment with the Tory party of Joe Clark."

At the calling of the election the major parties all have candidates nominated. The current member Peter Elzinga will seek re-election as a PC and Norman Flach will represent the NDP. The 60-day campaign will culminate May 22.

Jim Ammar passes at 44 years

M. M. Ramez Mounzer conducted funeral services for Nagib (Jim) Ammar on Saturday, March 24, 1979 at Park Memorial Chapel. Mr. Ammar died on March 17 from heart failure at the age of 44 years. His body has been shipped to Yanta, Lebanon, for burial on family land.

Mr. Ammar was born in Lebanon and received his education there. Following his marriage to a Lebanese girl, the decision was made to come to Canada in 1957, and the couple settled first in Edmonton where Mr. Ammar started as a salesman, rising to the position of general sales manager and then to marketing adviser for Westcan Ltd.

The couple's four sons were all born in Canada, and the family moved to St. Albert seven years ago.

Mr. Ammar was survived by his loving wife Basma; sons Nayef (Dave), Majed (Mark), Faisal (Frank) and Jehad (Jim); his mother, Zalfa Ammar of Yanta; two brothers and four sisters: Saleem of St. Albert, Said and Basma of Yanta, Lebanon, Jamal, Iffat and Bahiji, all of Edmonton.

Booths going fast for St. Albert Trade Fair

St. Albert Trade Fair publicity man John Coonie (of CKST fame) tells us that exhibitors are snapping up the booths available at quite a clip. Only a few remain with everything from cars to carpets and cameras to calculators already entered. Last year the fair drew 10,000 visitors to look over the goods and services in display. This year the St.

Albert and District Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the Fair, expect 15,000 to turn out at the Perron Street Arena May 4, 5 and 6 to get in the bargains.

As John puts it, "think of the exposure." It's not often (if ever) that 15,000 prospective customers walk through your establishment in two and one-half days.

Entertainment for the three-day event is currently being booked and it looks like the public is in for a great time. Combined with contests and 'give-a-ways' the St. Albert Trade Fair is shaping up to be the best deal of the year for consumers and businesses alike. Any questions? Give John a call at 458-9722.

Student record accessibility being studied

Protestant School Board Chairman Wes Penner says he would like to "remove the mystique regarding student documents in our schools. There is very little to hide." Mr. Penner moved that the Board's Policy Committee formulate a policy as "clear, concise and liberal as possible" that will define what information will be made available and to whom it will be available.

Mr. Penner told other trustees that he had taken some time to look into the matter and had learned that all other districts now had policy to deal with the subject of student records.

Trustee Ernie Wynychuk, who along with Trustee Shirley McCaffery makes up the Policy Committee, agreed with the intent of Mr. Penner's motion saying it "was high time we tied up all the loose ends."

Policy Committee Chairman McCaffery told the Gazette following the meeting that defining such a policy would not be a simple task but involved several complexities. She was especially concerned with the area involving separated and divorced parents - who gets access? Ms. McCaffery referred to some cases in Edmonton and across North America in which school records were of some aid to non-custody spouses in kidnapping their children.

The Policy Committee's

recommended policy will come before the Board as information on the request of

POLICY CHAIRMAN McCAFFERY

Trustee Scott Friesse to give other trustees an opportunity for input. It should be complete and in place by the end of the current school term.

Sign policy questioned again

The question of aesthetics arose once again as the Municipal Planning Commission once again contemplated the proliferation on signs. The MPC has expressed concern on two occasions lately concerning the height, width design of commercial signs. The question arose previously when a local franchised car dealer wished to put up a sign promoting his franchise name and the planners initially disapproved the size and design. Tuesday, the question arose when Mayor Ronald Harvey brought up the issue of portable signs.

The mayor said he had had complaints from the Parkview Steakhouse and Pacific 66 concerning the city's requirement that the signs be temporary in nature.

City Manager Bob Byron said he felt the problem lies in the interpretation of the bylaw. He said the signs are meant for quick promotion but are becoming permanent, in some cases. Ald. Breadner agreed that some action must be taken. The Gazette has been informed by another businessman that the issue will arise again shortly.

District 6 waiting on budget

The Protestant School Board has asked Alberta Education for a month's extension on its budget submission while it waits for the city to complete its

War declared on speeders

The St. Albert RCMP Detachment has been out in full force with their five radar devices, and report to the Gazette that the "spring fever" that drivers get makes for a lot of ticket writing.

Up until Tuesday, the total number of speeding tickets handed out for the month of March has gone over the 400 mark.

RCMP have also noticed that many parents are not "buckling up" their young ones. They point out that it takes only 1/10 second for the body to hit the windshield in an accident, and you can imagine what would happen to a child standing up in the back seat. It takes less than a minute to buckle up your children and save you a lot of heartache in case of an accident.

Can Christians combat racism and avoid violence?

PROBABLY NOT
SAYS UNITED CHURCH

Moses and the children of Israel."

A TIME TO ACT

Despite the fact that the plan to combat racism and the special fund is an extremely small portion of the work of the World Council of Churches, it has commanded a large place in the limelight of public attention, particularly in the wake of a council grant to the patriotic front of Zimbabwe.

In the face of such criticism, the General Council of the United Church of Canada has circulated a package of information to member churches in order to clarify the position of the church. The information makes clear that the program is a small portion of the World Council's humanitarian work, less than a twentieth of the budget for traditional aid to the third world.

It defends the work of the World Council and lauds the United Church's generous contributions to it, which have aided rehabilitation work in such countries as Bangladesh on an on-going basis. The package also points out that only contributions from members which are earmarked by them for the Special Fund, go to the fund, and that governments in other countries, as well as churches contribute.

Clearly the United Church neither condones, supports or participates in violence, says Mr. Wallace.

But he points out that where violence already exists within a system, "then liberation may be a bloody business - as it was for

When the Fourth Assembly of the World Council of Churches met in Uppsala, Sweden, in 1968, the Christian leaders from around the world bore a heavy burden on their consciences. Martin Luther King Jr., who was to have been the keynote speaker, had been assassinated shortly before the Assembly convened.

Did the church council have a duty to combat racism throughout the world, and how should their resources be used in that combat? Forty years earlier the International Missionary Council, meeting in Jerusalem, had declared to its members that "Any discrimination against human beings on the grounds of race or colour ... is a denial of the teachings of Jesus." As pointed out by R. H. A. Wallace, United Church representative on the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches, countless gatherings of Christians, from local congregations to international assemblies have echoed this conviction.

Translating that conviction into a course of action was to prove a road full of pitfalls for the council of churches. It would surely deserve censure from the oppressed Christians, subject to extreme suffering under racist leaders in countries such as South Africa and Zimbabwe (Rhodesia), if they took no action. As it turned out The Ecumenical Program to Combat Racism would also come under fire, both from within and without, with perhaps the most dramatic protest resulting in the suspension of its membership by the Salvation Army, (it did not withdraw).

In the shadow of Dr. King's Assassination the 1968 meeting rejected the traditional resolutions and demanded a "crash program" to combat racism, and the following year the Central Committee adopted a five year plan to: research racism, and interpret the facts to member churches; to educate Christians about the fact of racism and ways of dealing with it; to devise a means of action along the lines of non-violence epitomized by Dr. King, such as economic sanctions against governments practicing racism. A special fund was created to support "organizations of oppressed racial groups, or organizations supporting victims of racial injustice." A lengthy debate preceded adoption of this plan, but it carries by an overwhelming majority.

The Gazette REFLECTS

MAY 22nd AN IMPORTANT DATE FOR CANADIANS

This will be the first Federal election held in Canada in the month of May. But it seems like a good time for the leaders and candidates who will have to put in long, arduous hours from now to May 22. The "blah" days of late winter will be gone and everyone in our northern country experiences an uplift of spirit in the merry month of May.

Our country needs enthusiasm and optimism from its citizens going into this election. Within our four borders we hold riches which are the envy of many nations; vast space and vast resources in raw materials. Canada has also the important asset of peoples who have come here from many lands, bringing with them a glorious diversity of cultures and attitudes to living, and approaches to solving problems.

Admittedly Canada has got itself into financial deficits of alarming proportions. But perhaps voters must share the blame with government. We have asked for too much help from government - too many programs - too many grants. Now the money has run out and cutbacks in federal spending must be made. As we listen to the policies presented by three main parties, voters should keep the need for cutbacks in mind.

And those Canadians who are not French and/or not Quebecois, should not be too free with their opinions on Premier Levesque's government, and its aspirations.

The French were here long before most other Canadians, and have suffered much in the past both from some Anglophones and some of their own leaders. We need them in our country, but to keep them requires a sympathetic understanding of their deep desires on the part of non-Francophones. It will take a most careful assessment of election candidates and platforms to determine which will be the best choice for keeping the great province of Quebec as an integral part of Canada.

A third large issue will be the development of constitutional changes. This is an area for serious study and thought by all Canadians. A central issue in this election will be rights of Provinces to the funds coming from natural resources development. This is a right which can enable each of the present 10 provinces, and those to come in Northern Canada, to become strong and raise the standard of living of their people.

But the constitution's protection of equal justice under the law for every Canadian is also an important issue in this election. Our legal system and court procedures are presently bogged down, as are many of our penal institutions.

The other large issue will revolve around whether Canada should move to greater centralization of government control from Ottawa - or further decentralization across our huge territory.

If the campaign should degenerate into the "dirty" one some pundits are predicting, all Canadians will suffer.

We hope the party leaders will see that it does not.

The issues are larger than the personalities, but the handling of important issues is not always what decides elections.

Unfortunately,

LET'S CLEAN UP OUR ACT!

Living and working in St. Albert, I've always had the opinion, as I'm sure many other residents have, that St. Albert is just the greatest place to live. On Wednesday, I had the opportunity to show homes for sale in Millwoods. Having never been to Millwoods, I was very impressed, despite the many bad comments I had heard about it. Being a new community, you'd expect to see a lot of mud, garbage, construction materials, etc., lying around. I was surprised - this community is spotless, gleaming, well-manicured and reflects the citizens the community working together to keep it this way.

I drove into St. Albert and what a disappointment. Take a drive along Highway #2 through St. Albert and what do you see? Broken fences (all different types and sizes needing paint), garbage, old newspapers, dirty roads and streets. In total, an unsightly view for people coming to St. Albert for the first time to make their home here. First impressions are very important.

We have many beautiful and well kept streets, and avenues, namely, Boudreau Road, Hebert Road, Grosvenor Boulevard and Sir Winston Churchill Avenue, in fact, every one except Highway #2, which is the first impression people have coming to or through the City of St. Albert.

Can't the city do anything to improve this by sweeping and cleaning the roads, and attending to the garbage in early spring? Couldn't a fence be provided by the city, making it uniform along Highway #2 or better yet, landscape the highway with shrubs.

If the provincial government is responsible for Highway #2 through St. Albert and unable to maintain it properly, then perhaps the City of St. Albert should maintain it and bill the Department of Highways.

The citizens here have a lot of pride in St. Albert. We like living here; we're proud of our community and try to promote St. Albert as the place to live. How about the city doing a complete job?

Growth must come in the Met Edmonton area

The question is how

major cities in a province whose economy is booming. It will be impossible to stop that growth, or to disperse it in any very significant way.

Last Tuesday Edmonton city council made public its plans for taking in St. Albert, Sherwood Park and the so-called "Refinery Row" as part of a proposed land acquisition of 2,000 square kilometres in all four directions. Edmonton council passed this proposal by a 9-3 vote and it will now go before the Local Authorities Board.

The LAB now has before it applications from developers within the metro area for annexation to the City of Edmonton and in addition also has three applications for annexation of lands to the City of St. Albert.

All of these annexations are in the area defined as the "Inner Edmonton Metropolitan Area."

The three applications from St. Albert total some 8,400 acres, by far the largest of which is the City of St. Albert's application for about 4,700 acres. The other two annexations of land to St. Albert have been applied for by developers.

The city's annexation

The land applied for by the City of St. Albert is immediately adjacent to the eastern and southern boundaries of St. Albert, which would come out of lands in M.D. Sturgeon and County of Parkland. It is opposed by the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission (ERPC), (which would accept a smaller annexation), by M.D. Sturgeon and by the City of Edmonton.

ERPC reasons for opposition: No justification for the annexation has been shown by St. Albert; annexation of 960 acres of industrial land is premature and unreasonable in the light of probable rates of industrial development in the met area; and the LAB should consider all the annexation proposals for St. Albert at one hearing.

The M.D. opposes this annexation for reason that most of the area is destined for industrial and St. Albert has not shown sufficient need for an annexation of this magnitude, saying that merely annexing land and letting it lie dormant for a number of years is not sound planning.

Edmonton opposes because the annexation would compound the traffic problem in the N.W. portion of that city. It represents a premature and unrequired use of land for urban expansion. It represents a loss of prime agricultural land. It is difficult to service and does not concur with the proposed boundaries in the Edmonton, "Future of the City" report. And, it does not concur with the ERPC studies, which do not regard St. Albert as an industrial growth centre. Hearings on the City of St. Albert's annexation were held April 12, 1977 and reconvened June 20, 1977.

The North-West Annexation

B.A.C.M. (Genstar) has applied for annexation of 1,905 acres immediately adjacent to the northern and western boundaries of St. Albert, which would also come out of M.D. Sturgeon.

This annexation is opposed by St. Albert, M.D. Sturgeon and the ERPC. St. Albert gave no reasons for its opposition to this annexation in the city's resolution of February 8, 1977. M.D. Sturgeon opposes, saying St. Albert already has sufficient land to handle residential growth, and all annexations in the St. Albert area should be handled at one hearing, not on a piecemeal basis. The ERPC opposed it on grounds that the annexation does not conform with the General Plans of either St. Albert or M.D. Sturgeon, because both councils are against it and because, prior to west by-pass approval, transportation access was a problem. Hearings on the North-West annexation were held February 8, 1977, and reconvened September 27, 1977. No decision has been handed down.

The North-East Annexation

St. Albert Investments applied for annexation of about 1,800 acres immediately adjacent to the northern boundary of St. Albert (east of Highway 2) to come out of M.D. Sturgeon.

This annexation is opposed by St. Albert but no reasons were stated in City council resolution of February 8, 1977. ERPC requested a postponement and otherwise was opposed because the application does not conform with the Preliminary Regional Plan, Metropolitan Part, the General plans of St. Albert and M.D. Sturgeon, and because agreement has not been reached between Alberta Transportation, St. Albert and Edmonton on the provision of regional transportation services, adequate to service this proposal in addition to lands already committed to residential development within St. Albert. The M.D. is unofficially opposed but probable stance will be opposition on the basis that insufficient proof has been given of the need for additional residential land in St. Albert.

No public announcement has been made by either the Local Authorities Board or the Provincial Government as to any decision on the three St. Albert annexation applications.

Birds perform rescue mission

A reader brought us an interesting item from a London newspaper on the behaviour of birds.

The C. L. Eayres family of Green Road, Southgate, London, found a young bird in their garden who could not fly. They brought it indoors and telephoned the local animal protection society for advice.

The Eayres were told to place the bird in a paper carrier bag with a few crumbs, then peg the bag firmly to the clothesline out of the way of cats and away from the post. The people at P.D.S.A. suggested that the family watch through a window indoors to see what happened, which they did.

Very soon other birds were observed flying around the garden looking for the young one. Eventually they found it. Then one bird settled on the post watching the bag, while the others formed a shuttle service to and from the bag with food, taking it right into the bag.

This went on all day, and every so often the bird on the post was relieved by another bird; the post was never left without a bird. Next morning the bird was gone from the bag.

"All this involved quite a lot of birds in the most wonderful rescue operation I have ever seen," wrote Mr. Eayres, concluding his letter to the editor.

JUST A PLANE CASE OF ATTACK

When our photographer Al Popil visited a model plane building course recently at Sir George Simpson, he got more than he bargained for. The budding airforce squadron asked our photographer to lie low and be prepared for a show of military strength. Although Al used his rapid fire Canon (camera that is), nary a plane was winged.

Can Christians avoid violence?

In 1974 the program was given a second five-year mandate, by the Central Committee, ratified in 1975 by the Council. Again there was heated debate at both meetings, and again adoption was carried by a very large majority.

CRITICISM MOUNTS

Grants made last August to the Patriotic Front of Zimbabwe coincided with particularly brutal acts of violence in the civil war in that country, and the media came down hard with sensational-type criticism of "churches supporting those who massacre missionaries." A number of churches also voiced objections to the grants, but did not withdraw from the World Council of Churches.

On the matter of the grant to Zimbabwe, which some thought unwise when there seemed a possibility of a peaceful internal settlement, the United Church representative points out that the council "aligns itself with the opposition to the internal settlement, as voiced by the Anglo-American proposals, which object to the terms in which a white vote carries nine times the weight of a black vote, and leaves the white minority in control of security forces, the judiciary and other key areas.

MEDIA NONSENSE

Mr. Wallace also answers accusations made on the CTV "A House Divided" program on October 31, in which it was stated that the World Council of Churches is dominated by the Third World and shows a high balance of Eastern block forces.

"Arrant nonsense," says Mr. Wallace. Forty-nine percent of the last assembly came from western nations (125 churches). In the case of the Central Committee assembly 63 percent came from western nations.

He also refutes the claim that if grants are not used for guns they will release other funds for guns. "Nonsense again, - no one in Africa needs money for guns. International Communism is only too happy to supply arms to anyone who cannot get them from western powers."

And Mr. Wallace adds that "the reaction of many good Christians in North America to the Program to Combat Racism may well be a major factor in driving another African nation into the arms of the Communists.

Mr. & Mrs. Sevigny mark 60th anniversary

On March 3, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sevigny of the Youville Home marked their 60th wedding anniversary. In the afternoon relatives and friends went to visit them in the Youville Home. The day was rounded off with a family supper at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Regimbald. On this occasion just some of the family were present. However in July a big family reunion is planned and all members of the family will be present as well as grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mrs. Sevigny's brother from California is expected to be present as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Sevigny were married March 3, 1919 in St. Albert. Mr. Sevigny was born in St. Albert in 1893. Mrs. Sevigny (then Alvina Lafleur) was born in Argyll Minnesota in 1901. Mr. Sevigny farmed in St. Albert district until 1922 where they moved to California. In 1930 they came back to St. Albert, where in 1931 they rented the farm from the Oblate Fathers in St. Albert. While renting this farm Mr. Sevigny started the first dairy in St. Albert. While on this farm he hauled coal with a team of horses and provided the R.C. Church and the people of St. Albert with coal all winter. In 1939 they moved on Belle Rose Road where they bought the house and land. This house was torn down as the land was bought to make room for the shopping centre which is now being built. In 1970 they moved to the Senior Citizens Home in Legal. In 1972 they moved to the Youville Home where they have been living since.

Mrs. Sevigny operated two coffee shops in St. Albert both on Perron Street. One was located where the Bank of Montreal is now.

She also worked at the hotel coffee shop and the Youville Home.

The Sevignys' nine children: Al of Vancouver; Andy of Winnipeg; Arthur of Edmonton; Lucille (Mrs. Ray Lafranchise) who died in 1971; Evelyn (Mrs. Dan Regimbald) of St. Albert; Jeannette (Mrs. Richard Ries) of Calgary and triplet sons Father Raymond, Parish Priest of the Immaculate Conception Church of Edmonton; Robert of Edmonton and Roger of Calgary. They have 27 grandchildren and 24 great grandchildren.

The family presented them with a painting of their house on Belle Rose Road as an anniversary gift.

60 YEARS WED

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sevigny, long time St. Albert residents marked their 60th Anniversary March 3. The couple is seen here proudly inspecting a painting presented to them by their family. The painting is of their former Belle Rose Drive home.

ter, Mrs. Kay Bigelow of Toronto.

St. Albert Air Cadets in Review

#533 RC(AIR)C Squadron
by F/Sgt. C. Leibel

Thursday, March 22, #533 cadets returned to the regular routine which includes the attendance of classes.

A wide selection of courses are offered to cadets on Thursdays. All cadets start in a basic class which offers a bit of everything. They attend this class for one year.

After completion of the course first year cadets may choose any cause that they find interesting. Some of the courses offered by #533 squadron are: Air frames and engines, photography, electronics, effective speaking, leadership. For the flying scholarship cadets there is a course offered to prepare them for the skies.

Every Thursday, cadets spend two periods in their individual classes and one period on the drill square perfecting their marching for annual inspection. The periods run about 30 minutes long with lengthy breaks between each one.

The evening is usually finished by a final parade where the entire squadron performs a march-past.

#533's band leads this event followed by the colour party and the remainder of the cadets.

There will be no cadet meeting Thursday, March 29, due to spring break.

The month of April will be a busy one for #533 squadron. The first of the month will start off with a bang with range practice at 1000 hours. Cadets will be able to fire the new 22 calibre rifles after they are informed of various safety regulations involved with the handling of the rifle.

Cadet I.D. cards are required for this event.

The senior drill team will follow range at 1230 hours.

Band, colour party and senior drill team members are asked to attend practices which will be held on April 2 at the regular times.

April 3, #533's sports teams will meet at 8 p.m. Anyone wishing to participate on these teams please attend.

April 5, cadets will be relieved from regular class when they board buses to tour the AGT Tower located in Edmonton. This event will be covered in April 11's column.

April 21 and 22 are very important dates for #533's sports and drill teams - the regional drill and sports competitions.

#533's sport's teams will compete with other squadron's teams in two major events: volleyball and badminton.

#533's senior drill team will also compete against other drill teams. They will be performing various different movements as well as the required basic sequence. These movements will also be performed at the annual inspection in May.

Due to the fact that there are no regular meetings Thursday, March 29 or Wednesday, April 4, this column will be cancelled but will return on April 11 to bring you up to date with the events of #533 Squadron.

Information on joining #533 Squadron can be obtained Thursday evenings at 0700 p.m.

Very interesting

A reporter at the Gazette picked up a "Travel Alberta" 1979 Visitors Accommodation Guide, and while leafing through it, noticed a couple of interesting items (or non-items).

The City of St. Albert hotels etc., are now listed in Edmonton, with no mention whatsoever where St. Albert is. It does have an address for the St. Albert Inn, 156

Street and St. Albert Road. If one were to follow 156 Street from Edmonton, all you would find for a couple of miles is a country road. One would probably turn around and give up the chase, figuring you were lost.

There must be a lesson here somewhere ... someone figures the annexation will go through. We think.

Kids' Easter crafts offered at library

Circle April 7 and 14 on your calendar!! On April 7 the St. Albert Public Library is offering a fabulous SPECIAL EASTER CRAFT PROGRAM for all children ages six and up. It will begin at 2 p.m. sharp in the annex and there will be something to interest every child -- making Easter baskets, decorating Easter eggs, constructing an Easter egg tree and making delightful Easter bunnies and chicks.

Please register your child in person at the library ahead of time in order to ensure that enough craft supplies are on hand. (If any mothers happen to have these panty-hose containers shaped like eggs -- it would be gratefully appreciated if they could donate them for use in the craft program). All of the finished crafts will be put on display in the library for the week with an Open House taking place on the following Saturday -- April 14! At this time, children are asked to invite their parents down to view the Easter display, meet a real live Easter bunny and take part in an exciting Easter Egg Hunt!! -- with edible eggs!

Each child will be able to take their Easter craft home with them at our Open House -- so arrive early if you'd like to see the entire display. Better yet, drop down during the week!

A reminder of our hours: Monday - Thursday 10 a.m. - 9 p.m., Friday 10 a.m. - 6 p.m., Saturday 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. and Sunday 1 p.m. - 5 p.m.

The library will be closed on Friday, April 13; Sunday, April 15 and Monday, April 16 for the Easter holidays. We are definitely OPEN on Saturday, April 14.

NOT DOG GONE FUNNY . . . MAYBE

City worker Harley Beauregard, was not amused at the antics of this Terrier pup stranded on the ice of the Sturgeon River Thursday. The pup was spotted about 11:30 a.m. and wasn't retrieved until 6 p.m. - to the cheering of the spectators on the Perron Street Bridge. Harley's coaxing, a passing black lab and Gazette sports editor Marty O'Kell's hip waders couldn't get the pup back to shore.

'NFB Film Can' opens April 4

A selection of some 40 National Film Board cartoons, documentaries and dramas will be telecast nationally on the CBC network in a 26-week series beginning April 4.

"The NFB Film Can" will open every Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. for a half hour of entertainment aimed primarily at children, but the films have been carefully selected to appeal to everyone.

The series starts with the 1978 Academy Award-winning cartoon The Sand Castle, along with two other animated films The Magic Flute and The Sky is Blue.

The series runs until September 26 and includes award-winning documentaries, as well as TV premieres of new films.

Two comedies are scheduled for the April 11 show -- Soap Box Derby, where the girls take on the boys in a traditionally male-dominated sport and The Ride a film without words or worries but a lot of laughs as a portly tycoon's Rolls Royce and chauffeur run wild.

All the films that will be seen on "The NFB Film Can" are in community distribution and are available through National Film Board offices across Canada.

What are you doing Thursday? The Movie "The Raven" starring Vincent Price will be showing at 7:30 p.m. at the Teen Centre...all for the low, low cost of 50¢.

Our second newsletter hit the mail boxes on Thursday last week. Features included photos of activities and articles such as - an interview with Ray Telford at C.K.S.T., Hideout News, East Side Teens News, Open Gym night and much, much more. If you haven't got one, and would like one, give us a call. Shawn or Lynn at 459-6601 extension 70.

The Campers have returned. Gord Hennigar, our fearless volunteer, bared the wind and snow with Shawn and six courageous teens at Skeleton Lake. From what they say, it was a good time despite the winter relapse. A few came back much wiser after learning that "one must avoid at all times sleeping in tents pitched on swamps." If any teens are interested in some of the trips coming up - give us a call, or better yet, come out to the next meeting Wednesday, April 4th at the Teen Centre. Plans are in the works for everyone to get some canoeing skills before the next trip May 4 to 6. Let us know you're interested by showing up at the meeting.

A CAR WASH is taking place this Saturday at Grandin Esso. Car washers plan to be out in full force around 10 a.m. -- for 99¢ you can have the winter grime cleaned off your car and $1.49 will do the same to your truck or van. Although we are not experts, for that price, you can't go wrong. Proceeds from this will go to Enterprise and assist in upcoming events.

As you know, Enterprise can always use new teen input - so if you are interested in participating in any events or working on getting some of your ideas going - give us a call. We can use your assistance with the T.V. show, Summer Games Planning, Performing Arts and Sports Group.

ON THE HOME FRONT

Old age security payments to rise

Increases in the Old Age Security pension, Guaranteed Income Supplement and Spouse's Allowance, effective in April, 1979, have been announced by Health and Welfare Minister Monique Bégin.

Increases in Old Age Security pension and Guaranteed Income Supplement payments represent the 22nd quarterly escalation based on the cost of living, as provided for in the Old Age Security Act since October, 1973.

The new monthly total at the single rate for persons receiving both the basic Old Age Security pension and maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement will be $310.28.

For a married couple, both pensioners, the combination of the basic pension and maximum supplement will provide a payment of $573.42 for the couple monthly.

The basic Old Age Security pension will rise in April to $170.39 from the present $167.21.

The Guaranteed Income Supplement is paid to pensioners whose income, apart from the Old Age Security pension, is limited. The amount of the supplement varies in relation to the amount of income.

The maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement for a single person, or a married person whose spouse is not a pensioner and is not receiving a Spouse's Allowance, will go up in April to $139.89 from its current $137.28. The maximum supplement for a married couple, both pensioners, will increase to $116.32 each from $114.15. Added to the basic pension, this will give each married pensioner $286.71 monthly, or a total of $573.42 for the couple.

The Spouse's Allowance is paid to persons between 60 and 65 years of age who are married to Old Age Security pensioners and meet residence requirements. Entitlement to a Spouse's Allowance, and amount paid, is based on yearly income.

The maximum Spouse's Allowance will increase to $286.71 from $271.36. The maximum Spouse's Allowance is made up of an amount equivalent to the basic Old Age Security pension and the maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement at the married rate.

ALBERTA ... LAND OF MILK AND HONEY

March is honey month.

Delicate in flavor and light white in color, Alberta produces first quality honey. Beekeepers in Alberta produce nine million kg of honey annually - a third or more of Canada's honey production. Alberta honey is light in color and flavor, coming mostly from the nectar of clover, alfalfa and rape flowers. It is considered to be one of the best honeys in the world.

WHICH IS MORE NUTRITIOUS?

Honey has often been promoted as an organic sweetener, more nutritious than granulated, powdered or brown sugar. Honey is approximately 80 percent sugar (fructose and glucose) and 17 percent water. It also contains two other sugars (sucrose and maltose) and vitamins B1, B2 and C. One tablespoon of honey has more calories and carbohydrate content than granulated, powdered or brown sugar. It has less calcium, phosphorus and iron than brown sugar. Honey contains minimal amounts of thiamin, riboflavin and vitamin C. These small amounts of vitamins and minerals in honey make it no more practical than sugar as a source for adequate daily intake of necessary nutrients.

HONEY - TO SWEETEN YOU UP!

Honey can be used at many meals. It is great spread on toast or as a rich topping for pancakes. It makes a tasty glaze for meats, particularly ham, chicken and pork. But in baking, honey really comes into its glory! Honey substituted for the sweetener in baked goods gives a unique flavor and texture. Substitute 250 ml (one cup) of honey for 250 ml of sugar, but reduce the liquid in the recipe by 75 ml (¼ cup). Reduce the oven temperature by 14°C (25°F) to prevent over-browning. Honey prevents baked goods from becoming stale and drying out.

Fruit frozen in a honey syrup will not darken or discolour. There is no need to add vitamin C to prevent browning. A light syrup can be made by boiling 1150 ml (4 cups) of water and stirring in 425 ml (1½ cups) of honey.

A SPECIAL RECIPE ... JUST FOR YOU

As a wife of a small beekeeper, I now use honey in ALL my baked products. I have developed the following recipe, which has been very popular with family, friends and young folks too!

MUNCHIES

an easy to prepare, nutritious snack.

In a large pot combine: ½ cup peanut butter, ½ cup honey, 2 cups miniature marshmallows.

Heat together these ingredients and stir until melted and blended.

Meanwhile, combine in a large bowl:

1 cup raw rolled oats
1 cup bran
½ cup wheat germ
½ cup coconut
½ cup nuts (peanuts, etc.)
½ cup sesame seeds (op.

tional)
½ cup sunflower seeds (optional)

Stir dry mixture into honey-marshmallow mixture until well combined. Press this mixture into a greased 9" x 13" pan with buttered fingers to make it smooth all over. Chill in refrigerator three to four hours, until firm. Cut into squares (NOTE: For microwave oven owners, combine honey, peanut butter and marshmallows in large glass bowl and microwave on high for two to three minutes to melt ingredients. Stir once or twice while cooking. Then proceed as above).

HONEY STORAGE

Store honey in a warm dry place. To prevent granulation keep the temperature well above or below 14°C (57°F). Honey can be frozen and it will keep its liquid. To reliquify honey place the container in warm (not hot) water; overheating will destroy honey's delicate flavor and color.

Third anniversary at Sturgeon Baptist

The coming weekend will mark three years since the Sturgeon Valley Baptist Church began conducting services in St. Albert.

The congregation, which meets each Sunday at Paul Kane High School, will celebrate the event with a special service by the Berg

Chorale. Mr. Ferd Berg directs the 30 voice mixed choir which hales from Calgary. A polished, well rehearsed group, the Chorale has thrilled and inspired numerous congregations throughout the province and will be making its second trip to St. Albert. Reverend Irwin

Kujat, pastor at Sturgeon Valley Baptist is pleased to be able to have this exciting group of performers, who "radiate their faith in Christ," here to help celebrate this anniversary.

Sturgeon Valley held its first St. Albert service on April 4, 1976 with a congregation of 50. Rev. Kujat, his wife Louise and their three children moved to St. Albert from Olds in July of that year. The congregation has been meeting at Paul Kane for Worship and Sunday School during the past three years and, says Rev. Kujat, they have experienced rich blessings from God and good numerical growth. With an average of 160 now attending services the church is presently looking for a site in St. Albert for a building. Rev. Kujat says that although land prices are very high the possibilities are looking better.

Pastor Kujat says he is "excited about the ministry of his congregation - their faithfulness in their organized tasks. We believe God has given us unique opportunities and we want to carry out our responsibilities. We provide so well for our physical needs, but our spiritual needs often go unmet for years. I believe the greatest untapped resources in any community are the spiritual resources available to each of us through a vibrant faith in Christ as Saviour and Lord. When we tap these resources, ALL of our life is enriched."

Pastor Kujat and his congregation extend a warm welcome to members of the public to attend their special service and hear the Berg Chorale. The service commences at 11 a.m. Sunday in Paul Kane.

EDITOR - VICKY KNIGHT

The Skeptics Tank

By Vicky Knight

That acme of journalistic excellence, the Edmonton Sun this week fired an editorial salvo at CBC TV. The national TV network is a bureaucracy, with all the weaknesses inherent in such institutions. Unfortunately this has resulted in a lot of what might be termed knee-jerk negativism about CBC TV and its deficiencies. Recounting the network's failings has become one of our national games, like those described by Eric Berne in "Games People Play." Anyone with a fondness for "viewing with alarm" or "regarding with regret" thinks the CBC is fair game for editorial comment. However, they don't often suggest solutions or address related questions. Should there be a redesign of the public questions. Should there be a redesign of the whole public network concept? Should there be more money spent? Should there be mass firings and transfers with a changeover to independent producers? Most criticism of the CBC doesn't specify and neither does the Sun editorial.

What floored me the most however, was the timing. The Tuesday editorial came hard on the heels of a Monday evening that CBC came out looking damned respectable. In addition to fielding a heavy news day (in a more competent manner than some) the network aired one of their documentary specials on organized crime - part of the "Connections" series which reflects an ongoing investigation.

Now I'm not always enchanted with CBC programming - like I said last week, they did terrible things to Diane Stapley in their handling of her show, and whether I ever see The King of Kensington again is a matter of supreme indifference to me. In fact, in any area where the CBC has attempted to mimic American TV they have fallen down badly, and this includes sit-coms, awards shows, soap operas and variety shows. The Americans do this kind of thing and do it well but unless we express our own national soul, we come out a second rate copy. This means new formats and more innovative approaches to programming have to be tried. Every time that an original approach has been taken to programming the results have been highly successful for the CBC. "Beyond Reason" was an ingenious approach to a game-panel show with the attraction of celebrity guests, the lure of the occult and the fascinating prospect of learning a hint of one's future.

The CBC took a refreshing approach to politics, mixing it with comedy a few years ago in a zany potpourri called "Up Canada!" "Marketplace" is a classy approach to what can be a painfully self-righteous subject: consumerism. "Ombudsman" is a sounding board for public complaints with government that is fascinating to the public and bracing to the bureaucracy. "The Fifth Estate" is an investigative news program of international repute and "Man Alive" with host Roy Bonisteel is an insightful look at theology, philosophy and their place in man's world. It has no American equivalent. "For the Record" has introduced the docu-drama. This format can cause ethical problems regarding the difference between fiction and documentary, as it did with the airing of "The Tar Sands" and the ensuing lawsuit. However, it is still a usable and innovative approach.

"The Beachcombers" may not fascinate the editor of the Sun, as I presume he is a bit older than the program's usual viewing audience. It isn't a classic but it is still good quality programming that can be enjoyed by kids with no sacrifice to good taste. It's a damned sight better than "The Partridge Family" or "The Brady Bunch!"

"CONNECTIONS": CHILLING JOURNALISM

All these programs are exceptional in their own way but none top the CBC's effort Monday night in "Connections." Even to a generation weaned on "The Godfather," "Mannix," "SWAT" and the rest, this program was chilling. The camera brought organized crime right up for your inspection, in a manner that compelled the attention, no matter how reluctant. The show reflects an ongoing CBC investigation into organized crime. It is a courageous piece of reporting. It also serves for once and for all to bury the insidious Hollywood-born mythology of the Mafiosa as father figure. The movers

... it is bad, it is horrid."
This is as good as any a cliché to apply to the latest effort by Bob Guccione, the publisher of Penthouse. His new magazine, "Omni," is popular science in ultra gloss, but it does have its moments. The April issue explores a diverse collection of scientific issues and a few pseudo scientific issues. Some of the features are slightly irrelevant, but still interesting.

The cover is strangely appealing, an elegant but eerie depiction of UFO's that has an atmosphere alien enough to be real. The cover refers to a series of UFO photos within.

The best investigative piece was a little horror entitled "Pregnancy 2000" which is enough to give would-be mothers the cold sweats. Its author, Gena Corea states that the medical profession is increasingly regarding the pregnant mother as merely the "carrier" of the fetus. This alienation has come about between doctor and patient as the result of the trend to home delivery, natural childbirth and the re-introduction of midwives. The doctors see all these phenomena, says Corea, as a threat to their professional turf and are fighting it in a number of frightening ways in the U.S.

In three states, home delivery has been declared by obstetricians to be "child abuse." In one instance, police were dispatched to the home of a woman in labour who was planning a home delivery. The police dragged the woman forcibly out of her

EDMONTON GROUP WINS JUNO

Last Wednesday, at the Juno Awards, "Jazz Canada Montreux 1978" won for best jazz album of the year. Congratulations to the Tommy Banks Big Band and Big Miller, who wowed the world at Montreux. The album is a double album and costs $12.98. It is available only by writing to: CBC Merchandising, Box 500, Station A, Toronto, Ontario, M5W 1E6. Also available is Big Miller's "Transcription" and "The Plumber's Union."

MILT JACKSON, THE COUNT AND BIG BAND

Back in 1975 at Montreux,

Norman Granz put Milt Jackson together with Basie's small group as an experiment. The results were very positive and Mr. Granz decided to try the same type of arrangement with a big band. That's what Pablo's MILT JACKSON + COUNT BASIE + THE BIG BAND VOL. 2 is all about.

Milt Jackson gets the limelight and upstages everyone brilliantly. Count Basie is so subtle that he is often unnoticed, but always there adding a line. They play very well together, complimenting each other through every tune. Milt Jackson, who started with Dizzy Gillespie and is probably best known for his work with the Modern Jazz Quartet, plays the vibraphone (an electric xylophone) with such dedication and finesse that he is truly a master. Count Basie is Count Basie, as far as I'm concerned he is the best... what more can I say?

Butch Miles took up a pair of drum sticks at the age of nine and it shows. His performance on this album is faultless. On guitar is a man who joined Basie in March of 1937 - Mr. Freddie Green. Never plays solo. Never uses an amplifier. An impeccable rhythm guitarist. John Clayton is the pulse for the entire 38 minutes and 48 seconds. I have never heard of John Clayton before, but from what he showed on this album I wonder if I have led a sheltered life.

The above five men made this album. The big band didn't crowd the album and when they blow, it's in the true spirit of the big bands. Saxophones: Danny Turner, Bobby Plater, Eric Dixon, Charlie Fowlkes and Kenny Hing. Trumpets: Wayman Reed, Lyn Biviano, Sonny Cohn, and Pete Minger. Trombones: Bill Hughes, Mel Wanzo, Fred Wesley and Dennis Wilson.

Side one starts off light and easy, which sets the mood for the entire LP. Jackson and Basie swap solos on "9:20 Special." A little slower number is "Moonlight Becomes You" with the big band doing the intro. "Shiny Stockings" takes you back a few years. The horn section is soft and mellow backed by drums and bass. Milt cuts loose and the horns blare toward the end. Butch comes to life and the vibraphone and horns toss the tune back and forth. "Blues For Me" is a Basie/Jackson original with Basie starting off slow and easy. The last cut on this side, "Every Tub" is an up tune with Milt really pounding it out.

Side two is my favourite and starts off with the best cut, "Easy Does It," which I think says it all for this album. Set an ear on Freddie. The next song is "Lena and Lenny" a mellow, yet strong number with a dynamic presentation by all of the musicians. The lady you hear in the background "da daing" and "oh ohing" is Sarah Vaughn who was sitting in the studio as a spectator. Here's an old favourite: "Sunny Side of the Street." The big band is great, while Milt gives a most personal interpretation. "Back to the Apple" is a hot tune. The big band is "right on" and Milt breaks in cooking. The final lines are a real pleasure. The last cut, "I'll Always Be In Love With You" finishes off the album soft and easy.

Very Good!

and shakers of Canada's first families of crime are shown as they really are - cunning, brutish louts who have long since squelched their own humanity. The romance of "The Godfather" is a celluloid dream; "Connections" represents the squalid reality.

The show continued last night and tonight. It does not spare its public, its subject or for that matter, its reporters. It takes a pile of nerve to approach a known Mafia chieftain, cheerily call out your press credentials and launch into a breezy interrogation about the gentleman's criminal activities. Granted, the Sun's Peter Worthington was brave enough to take on the government, but the Mob plays even rougher!

Using all manner of trickery, I expect, the CBC managed to have a camera on an extortion victim as he is being threatened by two hoods. They are about as appealing as rabid wild boars, and had similar dispositions. Having uttered a wide variety of dire threats, the men depart and we are there as they are arrested outside.

We hear two ex-mobsters describing the Mafia fondness for ritual in death.

Surely even the Sun cannot dispute the unflagging sense of public responsibility that went into this production. The CBC gets and deserves a lot of slams. But when it does produce programs of merit why can't it also get the commendation it deserves? To blanketly cover one purveyor of one medium with such blanket scorn is facile and unfair. It also is a prime reason for our lamentable self image in the arts. The Americans can teach much about preserving the national self respect. They seem to understand the need to tend to their self-regard, boosting themselves if necessary. They realize that a bit of brisk praise where deserved can only be beneficial.

Perhaps some day we will learn this isn't arrogance, it's just good sense.

She tells of a welfare mother who refuses to allow her labour to be induced with Pitocin. The doctor is furious: she is moving along too slowly to suit him. She is finally persuaded to have the labour brought on with drugs. However, the doctor declares she is mentally unstable because of her initial refusal. Because she is thus declared unfit, her child is put in a foster home. She is awarded custody, but only after a struggle. What kind of lunacy is this. It's the kind of article that makes one hope that its author is given to hallucinating. It's also pretty meaty stuff.

Another deceptively earnest article does a straight faced dissertation on the lost principle of static gravity, and ringingly announces that the world's present natural disasters are all due to the fact that a static-gravity projector is in the hands of an evil power. It is a droll put on, or take-off, on the pseudo-scientists and their various whacko theories.

The regular features of the magazine are interesting. There is a certain amount of science fiction and excellent pictorial features. The Games section is a real brain strain. 'Continuum' is an intriguing gazette of recent scientific developments, and the editorial was a perceptive comment on the backlash against psychic phenomenon. However, a little stronger editorial stance might add more substance to the style.

For the scientist, Omni might be a little crass, I don't know. To a layman, it's a pretty good read.

Guild pottery, batik to be shown

The Guild is gearing up for another show on April 7 and 8 at the Lacombe Clubhouse. This show features hand-building, pottery and batiks.

Downstairs you will be able to see the finished creations of the wheel throwers. Pots, mugs, bowls, casseroles in the earthy colors given by the glazes used at the Guild will be displayed, and will be worth viewing.

Upstairs at the clubhouse the handbuilders creations will be on exhibit. Here creativity is the key since the artist does not use the wheel to bring out well thrown symmetrical shapes. If you want to view work with a really different flare, this area will especially appeal to you. Guild members such as Carol Stanton, Elke Blodgett, Felicity Pickard, Lorraine Godberson, Gerd Poulson let their own personalities show through their work in their hand-built art. The free-form sculptural styles leave the artist more flexibility to express herself. Carol for instance likes the work itself to guide her to its completion. On the other hand Felicity develops her ideas from sketches and usually has a refined sculptural approach. Gerd's works are developed from design while Theresa Tailleur likes to let it 'happen'. Elke creates large sculptural earthy forms. Come and see them for yourselves at the Lacombe Clubhouse, April 7 and 8 from 10 to 4 on Saturday and from 1 - 4 on Sunday. In the meantime if you are interested in seeing some Guild creations come to our Guild Gallery store at the Art Centre on Sunset Boulevard and browse through. Gallery store hours are Thursday 7 - 9 and Saturday and Sunday 1 - 4.

Research into the causes, prevention, diagnosis and treatment of cancer is progressing on a broad basis in many countries, including Canada. There have been improvements in surgical methods, in the technical aspects of radiation therapy and in the use of drugs and hormones to treat cancer. Nevertheless, the final conquest of all forms of cancer still eludes scientists and so the struggle must be intensified. Help support vital research by giving generously when a volunteer canvasser knocks on your door.

Workshop West to produce thriller

Workshop West Playwrights' Theatre will open the second production of its premiere season on Wednesday, April 4 at 8:30 p.m. at the Centennial Library Theatre with Carol Bolt's thriller, One Night Stand.

What happens when you bring a complete stranger into your apartment for a night of adventure? One Night Stand probes this question boldly. One Night Stand is the eerie and explosive tale of an evening with Daisy and Rafe, two lonely young creatures lost in the urban jungle.

Born in Winnipeg, playwright Carol Bolt has lived and worked in cities and towns across Canada and now resides in Toronto. She is one of Canada's most frequently produced playwrights; her plays include Buffalo Jump, Cyclone Jack, Red Emma and Shelter.

The Workshop West production of One Night Stand is being produced by a co-operative formed by the actors, director and stage manager. It will be directed by Jan Selman.

One Night Stand runs at 8:30 from April 4 - 7, 9 - 14 with a matinee on Saturday, April 14 at 2:30 p.m. at the Centennial Library Theatre, 7 Churchill Square. Tickets are $4 at Hub Tickets, Mike's and all Woodward's, and at the door.

'Otherwised Engaged' to open at Theatre 3

Theatre 3's eighth presentation on the 1978/79 season is Simon Gray's scathingly funny Otherwised Engaged. This fine example of witty British comedy enjoyed a long run on London's West End, featuring Alan Bates in the principal role of Simon Hench - the perfectly respectable publisher who refuses to get upset by the most flagrant manifestations of moral decadence that seem to invade the privacy of his living room.

Directing this irreverent contemporary comedy of manners will be Raymond Clarke, an actor and director who has worked extensively in England, the U.S. and Canada.

Richard Gishler, well-known to Western Canadian theatre audiences, returns to Theatre 3 to play the curiously "detached" Simon Hench, who would rather listen to his new recording of Wagner's Parsifal than get unduly aroused by the bare breasts of a fledgling would-be novelist. Mr. Gishler was seen earlier this season as Mark in Shadow Box and as the husband in the Rice Theatre production of Rashomon.

Also in the cast of Otherwised Engaged are Hamish S. Boyd, Ian D. Clark, Ian Deakin, Nicole Evans, Miriam Newhouse and Wendell Smith.

Otherwised Engaged opens at Theatre 3 on Tuesday, April 3 and will run through until April 15. Tickets are available at The Hub, The Bay, and Theatre 3 Box Offices (426-6870).

Supplement deadline nears

Old Age Pensioners who are also in receipt of the Guaranteed Income Supplement should ensure that their applications are completed and mailed prior to the end of this month in order to avoid a reduction in benefits.

Don Hopkinson, regional director of Income Security Programs, stated recently that approximately 8,300 applications are still outstanding. There are 143,700 old age pensioners in Alberta of whom 80,300 also receive the Guaranteed Income Supplement in varying amounts. To date 72,000 applications representing 90 percent of the total have been received and processed.

The Guaranteed Income

Supplement is a monthly payment which in combination with the Old Age Pension can range as high as $304.49 for a single pensioner. The supplement is based on the previous year's earnings and re-application must be made each year at this time. Mr. Hopkinson stated that pensioners whose applications are received too late for the April cheque will find their payment reduced to the basic Old Age Pension. In these cases adjustments can be made the following month and the supplement paid on a retroactive basis, however, every effort is being made to contact those pensioners whose applications are still outstanding in order to avoid any interruptions in benefits.

Pensioners requiring assistance in completing the applications may contact the Income Security Programs office in either Edmonton, Calgary or Lethbridge or any one of the part-time offices which are located in Red Deer, Camrose, Grande Prairie, Medicine Hat, St. Paul, Drumheller and Wetaskiwin. Applications for the Spouse's Allowance must also be submitted prior to the end of this month.

MISS CANADA 1975

Terry Meyer had the great honour of being Miss Edmonton then Miss Canada in 1975. That was a special year with salary, beautiful clothes, special gifts, travel and meeting Billy Graham.

"Coming from a Christian home," Terry says, "added patience, basic values and a genuine caring for people to my life." Terry is now married to John "Farlie"

Farlinger. They are a busy couple in their own St. Albert business. They are numbered with that great group of talented business people of our city. Terry shares her Christian testimony in many places. Next Sunday she and her football player Edmonton Eskimo husband will be sharing in the Sunday School and worship services at the First Baptist Church at 9:45 and 11 a.m.

The scriptures tell us, "We have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we know and believe the love of God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him." God has promised all that would follow him, "He will give beauty for ashes."

RCMP ready for crack down

A spokesman at the Redwater Detachment of the RCMP told the Gazette that "We are planning to crack down," regarding the speeders in the area.

The RCMP said that speeding is a problem, especially at this time of the year, both in Redwater and out on the surrounding highways.

One side effect of speeding and carelessness is accidents, of which there have been three in the last few days in the Redwater area. In all cases, the motor vehicle accidents were of the two vehicle variety, and in all cases there were minor injuries sustained. Police didn't release any further information on the accidents.

Hamlets with a population of 100 or more will be eligible for a $30,000 basic grant plus $60 per capita. Hamlets with a population of 50 to 100 are eligible for $10,000 basic grant plus an additional $60 per capita.

COME ALONG LITTLE DOGGIE

Greg Soetaert, 4, applies a youngsters enthusiasm to call roping on his parents farm located in the Villeneuve area. Packing a six gun (should an ornary critter appear) and using a bale of hay for added height, young Greg learned quickly there's more to call roping then meets the eye after landing on his little britches.

Jonquiere exchange students welcomed to Morinville

Thursday evening students from Jonquiere, Quebec arrived in Morinville for a 10-day visit. Students from Georges P. Vanier School in Morinville had spent 10 days in Jonquiere in February. Upon arrival the students were informally welcomed to Morinville by the parents.

The exchange is not just a trip, but a curricular program designed to highlight five areas the students are interested in. They include the political, economic, social, cultural and artistic aspects of the students' localities. A tabloid will be published illustrating that the trip is not a holiday but a truly educational experience. While the students face a fairly full schedule, there has been enough time set aside for them to really enjoy our western hospitality.

On Friday, the Quebec students were formally welcomed to Morinville by Yvonne Leduc of the Thibault School Board and by Bob Holzer, principal of Georges P. Vanier School. Following this ceremony an artistic program organized by Mr. J. Unsworth took place with students from both provinces participating.

They were then informed on the operation of our school system and the internal operation of a typical Alberta Please Turn to Page B 3

Air Cadets on Parade

#524 Sturgeon Air Cadets

By Julie Saunders

Tuesday, March 27, the parade was given over to films for the junior cadets and time for senior cadets to work on their special projects and displays for the final inspection at the end of May. It was also the final night to submit letters of application for those wishing to attend a summer camp. Also a reminder is given that social insurance numbers are necessary as cadets cannot attend summer camps without one. If any cadet has not applied for a number as yet, forms for this purpose are available at any post office.

Another session for canoeing was held at the Namao pool on Sunday, March 25. This course is being taught by Lt. Ed. Mortimer and O.-Cdt. Bob Barraclough.

For a weekend of fresh air and fun out of doors, #524 squadron will be travelling to Camp Wright (near Athabasca) on the weekend of April 6, 7 and 8. They will leave Gibbons by bus at 5 p.m. on Friday and return on Sunday afternoon. Cadets will be informed as to what they must and must not take on this trip. Medical forms must be handed in before a cadet can go on this weekend outing.

It was announced to the squadron last Tuesday that Captain J. McHardy, commanding officer of #524 Sturgeon Air Cadets has been promoted from the rank of Acting Captain to the substantial rank of Captain as of March 1, 1979. Captain McHardy took two weeks from his busy summer last year to attend a Captain Qualifying course at Vernon, B.C. We commend him for his efforts and offer our congratulations on his promotion.

Anyone interested in joining cadets may come to the Gibbons school on Tuesdays at 7 p.m. or phone 921-3518.

Babies in the News

By Liz McLeod

Paul and Debbie Kolesar are receiving warm wishes since the birth of their darling daughter, Tanis Anne, weighing 6 lbs. 4 ozs., being 19 inches in length and coming into this world at 5:55 p.m. on Thursday, February 15, 1979, in the Misericordia Hospital. This is the first grandchild for both sets of grandparents.

Henry and Kay Kolesar and Bernie and Ann Ross of R.R. 1 Calahoo, Alberta, are filled with pride as are the great grandparents - Mrs. M. Mary Kolesar of Calahoo and Mr. and Mrs. Cyril and Mary Victor of Westlock, Alberta.

Congratulations everyone!

Baby shower for Tanis Anne

By Liz McLeod

It is almost a tradition to welcome a newcomer to Calahoo with a baby shower and this evening was no exception.

The Gazebo was gaily decorated in a yellow and white theme, for the 40 relatives, friends and neighbours, who gathered to honour Mrs. P. Debbie Kolesar and her infant daughter Tanis Anne.

A few games of bingo were played before Debbie, her mother, Ann Ross, and grandmother, Mary Kolesar were seated at the head table, so they could open all the many useful gifts for Tanis.

All through the evening Tanis was awake and good as gold with everyone making her acquaintance, while admiring all the lovely gifts, before lunch was served.

Debbie thanked everyone graciously, and special thanks went to Mrs. Eric Sherylynn Quintal and Mrs. Blake Joan Nobles of R.R. 1 Calahoo, who organized this delightful occasion.

Morinville welcomes Quebec students

high school in a conference held by Yvonne Leduc and Bob Holzer. They were also explained some of the area's history through the stories of Mrs. Billo, one of Morinville's pioneers. Fathers Croteau and Simard then took the students on a historical tour of St. Jean Baptiste Church and the Rectory.

On Saturday, a tour of the City of Edmonton was on the agenda. Highlighting the tour were such attractions as: the Coliseum, the Commonwealth Stadium, the Muttart Conservatory, the Legislative Buildings, the University of Alberta campus, as well as other places, culminating at Vista 33 in the AGT Tower for a breathtaking view of the city.

The students spent a bit of time shopping and then gathered together in a hospitality room in the Plaza Hotel. They were then taken on a tour of the Citadel Theatre. The day ended with a live theatre performance in the Rice Auditorium to see "Bistro Car on the CNR."

Sunday morning there was a special religious service at St. Jean Baptiste Church with participation from "les Papillons." Later in the afternoon the Quebec students went to the Morinville Ice Carnival, which was followed by a tour and historical commentary on the cultural centre. The evening ended with a social evening of music and dance, which featured a few invited artists.

On Monday, the Jonquiere students travelled to St. Albert, where they toured the Albert Lacombe Museum with guide Arlene Borgstede. From St. Albert they travelled to the Provincial Museum in Edmonton.

Yesterday the students made their way to Banff, where they spent some time at the Hot Springs. Today they will be touring the major sites as well as spending some time on the slopes. The evening's entertainment features a disco. Thursday will also be spent in Banff with the students returning later in the day to Morinville.

Friday will be their final day in Alberta and will be spent touring the refineries at Fort Saskatchewan and taking in the farm and stock show in conjunction with the largest indoor Canadian Rodeo. In the evening a special wind-up banquet will be held in the Rec. Centre in Morinville commencing at 7 p.m.

Goldenagers enjoy togetherness

By Liz McLeod

Thirty-seven senior citizens of Calahoo and district, including Onoway, gathered in the church basement at Calahoo for the regular meeting of Calahoo Goldenagers Club on March 14.

What a happy throng, playing cards, and then bingo before the always pleasant lunch hour. This day the lunch was lovingly provided by Mrs. J. Dena Groppe, whose birthday was the same day.

A large decorated cake made by Dena, Clara Loyer and Tom Campbell was shared in honour of their March birthdays by all present and singing Happy Birthday to them.

The warmth of friendships are really in evidence at these gatherings, and very important to all the senior citizens.

Fire consumes Morinville garage

A fire at the Louis Feist residence in Morinville last Saturday afternoon destroyed the owner's garage as well as two cars and a truck. According to firefighter Paul Krauskopf the incident occurred at approximately 3:15 p.m. when the truck in the garage was being started and backfired. The resulting fire took about one hour to extinguish by the 10 firemen present.

Fortunately, there were no injuries and the damage caused to adjacent areas was slight. The neighbours' fences on all three sides suffered fire damage as well as the windows of the Feist residence.

One serious problem experienced by the firefighters was the difficult access to the scene as a result of heavy traffic flow by curious spectators. Mr. Krauskopf expressed concern over the possible results such delays can cause in critical situations.

Workshop series planned on farm stress

Women of Uniform and the provincial government's Farm Safety Program have pooled resources to present a workshop series for farm families on recognizing and coping with sources of stress. On April 18 a workshop will be held at the Sunnyside Hall at 1:30 p.m. near Namao and on April 26 another will be held at the Thorhild Community Hall starting at 9:30 a.m.

The workshops are designed as a follow-up to an earlier series by the farm women's group on stress in the farm family unit which identified major sources of stress. The primary objective of the new series will be to encourage farm people to identify "coping mechanisms" for meeting the demands of modern living.

The earlier study by Women of Uniform discovered that farm finances led 11 major areas of concern, but also recognized that finances were a part of other overlapping stress sources, such as the monetary aspects of unfavorable weather.

Among other concerns identified as stress producing were family, work, land use issues, farm management, health, retirement and community social problems. Of all stress sources, finances, family and work, each more than doubled the stress levels associated with other areas.

The workshops are intended for farm couples or family members. They are designed to include all in discussions so that coping mechanisms learned by one party will be more effective for other members of the family.

Very particular bees

When a tiny insect can cater to its every whim. The increase crop yields more alfalfa leaf-cutter bee is such than five-fold, farmers will an insect.

Scientists at Agriculture Canada's research station at Lethbridge, Alberta, imported European leafcutter bees into Canada in the early 1960s. Now there are more than 200 farmers in western Canada who keep these bees.

Most of the leafcutter beekeepers are alfalfa seed producers, who rely on the bees for alfalfa pollination. But the bees are fussy. The front of the hive has to be painted with patterns and colors attractive to the bees. Otherwise the bees fly away and nest elsewhere. The bees favor light blue on black with irregular patterns.

Les Papillons from Georges P. Vanier School in Morinville

Jewel box, a real treasure house

By Margaret J. Atkinson

Once again Albert and I were guests at the pot luck supper which was held by the Golden Gems (senior citizens) at the Jewel Box in Bon Accord on March 16. What a wonderfully laden table there was! It's no wonder during the early 1800's a table heaped with food was given the name "groaning board" or as the Norwegian people called it, the smorgasbord.

St. Patrick's Day was honored in fine style, with plates heaped into "minor mountains" of the wonderful food. Members and guests made their way to the round tables scattered about the room, on which a large green plastic Shamrock was placed. They could go to the beautifully laid out table to refill their plates at anytime.

A large cake in the green and white theme of St. Patrick's sat between many pies and other delectable desserts.

We all enjoyed bingo, pool, shuffleboard or whatever else we pleased.

I can't think of anything more wonderfully stimulating than a wonderful pot luck supper and the friendly chats about old times over such a variety of home-cooked foods. By golly that's the way to take on a lot of "old" friends! No one is a stranger there and before you know it you are old friends.

Those Golden Gems are the treasure of that Jewel Box. Boy oh boy that's for us! Many, thanks Golden Gems, and the Gazette with Sadie's Bon Accord news column.

See you at that table again!

Mrs. Marie Ramsey passes at 67

A former resident of Morinville, Mrs. Marie Ramsay of 5212 - 126 Street Edmonton, passed away at the age of 67 years. She leaves to mourn her loving husband Henry, one son Gilbert of Edmonton, two daughters Mrs. Bruce (Jeannette) Fuhr of Spruce Grove and Mrs. Don Weiss (Marilyn) of Morinville, nine grandchildren; also two brothers and one sister of British Columbia, one sister in Manitoba.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held on Friday, March 23, 1979 at St. Agnes Church in Edmonton with interment in the Holy Cross Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay operated the I.G.A. store in Morinville for many years and were always involved in the social activities of the town. Mr. Ramsay was on town council and the mayor of the Town of Morinville for a number of years.

The following is a copy of the Eulogy delivered by Alphonse Nobert at the funeral.

"It is most difficult and painful for us to accept the death of a person we have so dearly loved. How can we express our sorrows, our feelings at a time like this. Our attendance here this morning at this Mass of Christian Burial as a true sign of the love and appreciation we had for our dearly departed Marie, who is now enjoying her eternal reward with our Heavenly Father.

Marie has to her credit a family of three children, a son and two daughters and nine grandchildren. She also leaves to mourn two sisters and two brothers and numerous relatives and friends throughout the country.

Inevitably, Marie will be dearly missed by Henry and family as well by all of us who knew her. Her pleasant and jovial manners were clearly defined whenever we would meet. She would always welcome us with open arms and an inviting smile. Marie was a devoted wife, a concerned mother and a loving grandmother. The church teaches us that the death of a beloved one should be a time of rejoicement. The interior of the church, the altar are decorated in white and so are the celebrant's vestments to indicate joy and happiness for the deceased one.

On the other hand, we realize that death is sorrow for those that are left behind. To Henry, Gilbert, Jeannette and Marilyn, please accept our sincerest sympathy and may our prayers assist you and be a comfort in your loss. May God in his abiding love sustain you in your sorrow and strengthen you with hope and faith to face each new tomorrow.

It breaks our hearts to lose you, Marie, but you have not gone alone, for a part of us has gone with you on this day that God called you home. You will never be forgotten, your bright eyes and cheerful face will always be pleasant to recall. You had a loving word for each of us and died beloved by all. As long as life and memory last, we will always remember you in our prayers."

Legal CWL News

The CWL of Legal March meeting was called to order by Mrs. Barry. Fr. Levasseur led with the league Prayer.

We offer congratulations to two of our members these being Bernice and Martin Montpetit on the birth of their daughter. Yvonne and Alphonse Badry on the birth of a son.

We would like to report a very successful bake sale and raffle. Our thanks go out to the Co-op, and to those who donated baking. The winner of the afghan was Mrs. N. Boisvert from the Chateau. The St. Paul CWL diocesan convention will be held April 3 at Cold Lake. The theme this year is "The Child a Supreme Gift." Registration is at 9 a.m. Program commences at 9:45 a.m. with guest speakers, workshops, a celebrated mass at 4 o'clock, concluding with a banquet.

Jackie Dechamplain and Rachel Bilodeau next explained to us the exchange trip the Legal students will be making to Quebec, and the return visit of the Quebec students. As hosts for the return visit they are in the process of raising funds.

April is election month so would all members please send their nominations to the rectory, preferably by April 16. Please submit nominations for president, vice president and secretary treasurer. If you need any information call nomination committee Jeannine Keane or Florence Quaghebeur.

Mildred Klassen next introduced Kathleen Quinn, field worker for development and peace. She spoke to us about the organization, some of its concerns and aims. We then saw some slides on "Guess Who's Coming to Breakfast." A most interesting presentation on how our cornflakes, rice krispies and the sugar we sprinkle on them, all tie in with the big corporations that exploit the peoples in the developing countries.

We were pleased to have several ladies from the MFC join us for this part of our program.

Miss Quinn will be speaking at the masses on Sunday. She is a very interesting and able speaker.

Due to the Easter holidays our next meeting will be April 24 in the rectory meeting room.

Membership week is April 22 - 28.

The league program presents a real challenge and points up our "Christian Mission" in the world, beginning in the parish and community.

Please attend one of our meetings, you're welcome.

Legal winter carnival was great

By Carmen Morin

Legal held their annual winter carnival March 10 and 11. On Saturday the Mite "B" started their hockey tournament at 9:30 a.m. with St. Albert winning the tournament. In the Mite "A" division Barrhead came out on top.

Sunday morning the fathers managed to tie their game against the peewees with a few unlawful goals. Later during the day the Shaver "B" won over the mothers with the son's also winning the "good sportsmanship" trophy. In the Shaver A Morinville won over Legal. The Legal bantams lost to Rochester. In the final hockey game the Legal Oldtimers tied four all against the Westlock Monarchs.

Our local figure skaters along with the guest skaters from the Edmonton Federation of Communication Leagues performed beautifully in front of a large audience.

Following the ice revue Marlene Champagne - Miss Fete au Village presented Mrs. Lucille Dube with roses for all the help given for sending out notices and announcing schedules through the school. Mrs. Jeanne Maurier was also given roses in appreciation for doing all the crests on the hockey sweaters. Miss Fete au Village then presented Eileen Weidnemer - figure skating teacher with roses and Carmen Lessard presented her with a small gift as a token of Legal. The guest skaters also received a small gift as a token of appreciation. Jeanne Maurier and Doug Hills were given an engraved plaque for their years of dedicated service to the Recreation Board.

Allan Keane Jr. won the hockey cake and Mrs. V. Parent won the figure skating cake which were raffled during the bake sale at the Co-op and arena on Saturday. Sue Holton won the beans in a jar (1039) contest, and Mrs. Ben St. Martin won the door prize which was a homemade pillow.

In the chuckwagon races the Lionesses won over the Lions with a little help from the referee. Bon Accord Mite B won over Legal Mite B.

Thanks to the Lions and the Lioness Clubs for making the chuckwagons and also for taking charge of the skate-athon and the children's races.

Special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Contant who donated a hot dog and drink to all the participants in the carnival.

Hydroponic barley grass

They look like large refrigerators and use hydroponics - the growing of plants without soil - to produce barley grass for animal feed. "Grass machines" as they are commonly called in the United States, can yield up to 800 pounds of grass a day, about the same as 32 acres of irrigated pasture.

The total cost of producing one ton of barley is $25., compared with at least $60 a ton for pasture alfalfa, and the unit uses less than one-fifth with water required to irrigate the pasture. Studies have also shown that farm animals fed this barley together with hay or straw are more productive.

-From the Wheat Pool Budget.

Rape market growing

The 1979 Alberta Rape-seed Growers' Association convention was recently told that rapeseed now has 56% of Canada's oil market, 40% of Canada's overall edible oil market and 25% of Japan's oil market.

LADY BEWARE

"Lady Beware" is a program for women on a commonsense approach against crime. It will be held upstairs at the Multiplex on Wednesday, April 18 at 7:30 p.m. The fee for this course is $50. Presented by the Redwater RCMP detachment and the Sturgeon Regional Recreation Council.

DANCE

The Saturday night dances have been switched to Friday nights so that we may have a live band. The next one will be Friday, March 30 at the Legion Hall from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., featuring the "Zircos." Midnight lunch will be served. The cost is only $10 per couple and dress is casual.

LEGION

The next meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be Monday, April 16 at 8 p.m. at the Legion Hall. They are looking for new members so if you qualify, come on out to the next meeting!

Whist will be this Thursday, March 29, and bingo is the following Thursday, April 5, both at the Legion Hall.

Events to look forward to in the near future include "Hawaiian Night" on April 21 and "Variety Night" on April 25. Entertainment for Variety Night will include people from various businesses around town demonstrating their singing, dancing, and acting talents. Profits from this will go to the Redwater Legion Building Fund.

FARMERS' MARKET

The next Farmers' Market will be held on Saturday, April 21 from 12 noon to 4 p.m. at the Legion Hall in Redwater. Included this month will be Nellie's pyrogies, Pat's variety houseplants, Mrs. Abel's honey, and Helen's petit point pictures, always a popular item. There will be a good selection of jewellery and handicrafts, and a few surprises as well. The TOPS club will be featuring a table this month. Back by popular demand is the Tofield Greenhouse, offering a full line of houseplants just in time for Mother's Day. Rose Strembiski was unable to attend last month's Farmers' Market due to medical problems, but will return this month with her bake sale of prune buns, poppy seed buns, chiffon cakes, doughnuts, and various pastries. Here is your chance to fill your freezer with these excellent baked goods. You might even win a door prize!

AMBULANCE BRIGADE ON TRAINING EXERCISE

Redwater's ambulance volunteers spent Sunday afternoon working with Emergency Services (Ft. Sask.) Ltd. in preparation for operating their own ambulance next month. Most of the time was spent learning extraction techniques on motor vehicle accidents. Cars damaged in actual road accidents were used to simulate near-real conditions so members will be prepared when they are called out to a highway collision. All members also received an ambulance ride tied on to a stretcher so that they would appreciate how a patient feels when in the same position. Everyone agreed that it was a most eye-opening and informative session and came away convinced of the value of seat belts.

AMBULANCE BRIGADE MEETING

The next regular meeting of the Redwater and area Ambulance Brigade will be Monday, April 2 at 7:30 p.m. at the Pioneer Club. More volunteers are needed. If you are interested, please call Bill at 735-3093 or Linda at 735-3547. Better still, come on out to the next meeting and get involved!

Two R.N.'s are required for training and to advise the brigade in medical areas. This is volunteer work and will only take up a couple of hours of your time per week at the most, so if you can help out, please call Bill Johnson at 735-3093.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Richard and Kathy Alessio of Redwater on the birth of their first child, a son, Nicholas John, born March 14, 1979. He weighed 7 lbs. 2 ozs.

Redwater Guides enjoy snowshoe camp

By Kerri Johnson

On the weekend of March 16-18, the Girl Guides, under the direction of Lorrie Ewaskow with the help of Mrs. Melnychuk, spent their time learning the ins and outs of snowshoeing and outdoor living in the wintertime. Our Redwater girls were joined at the Coronado Church Hall by nine members of the Bon Accord troop and 16 members from Gibbons. Their leaders were Linda Schwon-ik, Cathy Hutton, Commissioner Chris Jones, and Eleanor Drinkill. The girls learned about the origins of snowshoes and how to walk in them. They ran relay races and had a nature hunt. In addition, an outdoor wiener roast was conducted and everyone enjoyed the campfires in the evening where the girls entertained with skits and songs. They also learned crafts and participated in cooking and cleaning. Charlotte Ewaskow celebrated her birthday at camp with cakes brought by Elsa Parham, the camp advisor from Smoky Lake, and Peggy Neufeld from Redwater. There was a special visit on Saturday from Dorothy Russell, the area commissioner.

The Redwater troop were Elizabeth Andrews, Christine Baker, Melanie Buckreus, Tammy Bunn, Sharon Crocker, Sherri Dust, Chlotte Ewaskow, Janice Korpessio, Anita Laurence, Brenda Logan, Shauna Maydanski, Diane Melnychuk, Lori Nelson, Christine Neufeld, Tracy Noble, Sheila Wowchuk, Rhonda Yakubow, and Dara Manderville.

Many thanks to Paul Ewaskow, Mrs. Laurence, Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Neufeld, and Mrs. Baker, who provided the transportation for the girls.

MINI-MITES

Congratulations are extended to the Mini-Mite B team for bringing home the first place trophy from the Morinville tournament. A very special thank you to all the fathers who helped out over the season.

NEW ARRIVALS

Congratulations to Josyann and Gilles Lachance on the birth of their son, Eric, 6 lbs. 12 ozs. on March 7, and to Cherie and Albert Dutka on the birth of their son, Ryan Edward Harry, 6 lbs. 8 ozs. on March 21.

LADIES

The Bon Accord Ladies Community Club report a most successful and hard working year for 1978. During that time the club members catered to a number of events including four weddings, the annual turkey supper at Thanksgiving, the Fish and Game banquet and a special Luau dance and supper. Besides that they have organized the concession at the arena. Members of the club wish to thank everybody who worked so hard at the concession during the 1978 winter season. This volunteer assistance was greatly appreciated by the club and community Rec. Board. During the past year the club has donated $10,600 to the Community Centre Board and since its inception in May, 1946, over $46,000.

On behalf of the community at large, I would like to extend a sincere thank you to all those community members who have worked with the LCC over the years. Their efforts benefit us all. Remember if you are called on by the Ladies Club for a donation of food or a helping hand, it isn't the club who benefits, it is yourself as a member of the community. In case no one has contacted you, volunteer your services by calling club president Lynda Johnson at 921-3634.

LAS VEGAS

The Las Vegas trip was won by Miss Marion Fairbairn, Edmonton. Seniors are invited to attend a film on Readers' Theatre which will be shown at the Jewel Box on Tuesday, April 3 at 2 p.m.

BINGO

The bingo jackpot is now $265 in 59 numbers. Winner of the bonanza was Betty West. Free admission to next Sunday's bingo were won by Thalia Critchley, Barbara Hill and Jean Jensen. Jean is moving to Fort McMurray and will be sorely missed at bingo where she not only contributes liberally by buying cards but is also a tremendous help when it comes to setting up, and selling tickets. Thank you, Jean.

BON ACCORD ART CLUB

The Bon Accord Art Club will hold a show of water-colour paintings done over the past winter, at the school gym on Sunday, April 8, 1979 from 1 to 4 p.m. Silver Collection.

MITE A's

Mite A's put on a tremendous show for their hockey fans when they tangled with the hard playing fellows from Morinville in a two-game total-point semi-final last week. In the first game played at Morinville, the local squad found themselves three goals back. In the second game played at the Bon Accord Arena they came on strong, scoring several unanswered goals to surge ahead of Morinville in total points. Morinville had not given up and came back to even the score. With only seconds to play, the winning goal was scored by Bon Accord. The team now will meet Gibbons in a bid for the league championship. Come out and give them your support. They play an exciting hockey game. Contact Bryan Critchley for times and places.

Following the Mite A game a "surprise appreciation" party was staged for arena staff, Roy Scott and Jim Allen. The fellows were presented with a gift each as well as a huge cake. A very sincere thank you to Roy and Jim for a job well done.

SPRINGBROOK

The Springbrook Community League will meet at the home of Dale and Lynda Roberts, 5210 - 52 Avenue on Thursday, April 12 at 7:30 p.m. The Ladies Community Club will meet at the home of Edith Kowalski on April 11 at 8 p.m.

A reminder to hockey players of the Sturgeon Gentleman's League of the dinner and dance slated for April 7 at the Cave in the Bon Accord arena.

DON'T LITTER

Are you throwing that candy bar wrapper, that pop can or bottle, that chip bag or any other item of garbage into the street or are you depositing it in the nearest garbage receptacle? A very little effort can help to make our town a nice place to live.

LADIES SOFTBALL

Any ladies wishing to play softball please register at the Village Office as soon as possible.

Gibbons Library News

Many homeowners in Gibbons, particularly those in the newer areas of the town, will be constructing fences this summer. Before you begin your project, come down to the Gibbons Public Library and look through some of the books available. An obvious one is "How To Build Fences and Gates" edited by D. W. Vandervoort. This illustrated book gives numerous ideas for fences which are both practical and attractive.

The gate you choose can provide you with security and privacy and also present a dramatic entrance to your property. This book offers other suggestions for walls you may want to erect to give you privacy or to provide windbreaks around your patio or sundeck.

The Practical Handbook of Patios and Outdoor Projects by Tom Philbin contains some good ideas and plans for barbecues, patios and sundecks, outdoor furniture and children's play equipment. There is also instructions on brick laying and concrete work.

There are at least three books in the Gibbons Library on building fireplaces. There are numerous styles shown for various rooms and decors.

Two books on making storage areas, one a Sunset Book, the other published by Better Homes and Gardens, have been in circulation almost from the first day they were put on the shelves. You can get both ideas and plans for all types of storage requirements from these two books. These would be excellent to peruse before you begin development in your basement. Storage areas always seem to be at a premium and these two books give ideas for making the most of what you have.

Children in the Gibbons, Bon Accord areas are reminded that they are invited to attend Story Hour on Saturday from 1 to 2 p.m. A member of the Gibbons Girl Guides will tell and read stories to the children. This service to the community is free, and will introduce your children to the world of reading.

Library hours are 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday and Wednesdays, from 7 to 9 Monday, Tuesday and Thursdays. Membership fees are $1 for adults and 50¢ for children.

Volunteers are still needed to help operate the library. If you wish to assist please call Pat Wandler, 923-2626. There are numerous jobs to be done as well as the one of acting librarian, and your assistance is needed.

New members for Rec. Board reation Board. Ted Nesdole, Chester McBride and Tom Carleton have two years remaining. Mr. Carleton was elected vice-chairman. Chairman Joe Milligan has a year remaining as does Dave Latta and Chuck Arp. Chuck has taken over for Doug Laws, who will be in charge of the sports grounds completion, but has resigned from the Board.

Congratulations to Russ and Joanne McCord on the birth of their 9 lb. son Benjamin Ryan on March 14, 1979 at 2:02 p.m. in the Charles Cammell. A little brother for Amanda.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy to the Mahan family on the passing of their father John who passed away on Saturday, March 24 in Drayton Valley. He leaves to mourn his children Don and Dianne Sullivan and family of Drayton Valley, Eric and Shirley and family, George and Joceline and family from Devon and Johnny at home. He also leaves his sisters-in-law Nellie and Jack Hogg of Gibbons, Helen and Bill Williams of Gibbons, and brother-in-law Don and Judy Christie of Gibbons. He was predeceased by his wife Peggy in September of 1977.

A STAR IS BORN IN GIBBONS

Last week my brother-in-law Tom Hogg flew to Vancouver to try his first stint in a career in acting! He was picked by a photographer who was taking pictures of skiers on the ski slopes of Banff and of all the pictures he took of the skiers they picked Tom to do some commercials for them in Vancouver.

After passing a screen test in Edmonton he was flown down with all expenses paid to Vancouver to act on the commercials. His make-up girl is the same one who makes up Allan Hammel and all the stars of TV. Will Gibbons ever look the same after all this excitement. Congratulations Tom.

CRIME

Spring fever is really bringing out the crime in Gibbons. Between break-ins and general damage to personal property a person wonders what possesses the minds of these kids. The only time you ever seem to see an RCMP around here is around noon when all the kids are in school. The parents should buy some jogging shoes for these kids to try and run some of the ants out of their pants!

SUNDAY SCHOOL

This Sunday, April 1 Sunday School will be starting up for another season. Our school is non denominational and all children are invited to attend. Services are at the Gibbons Sunday School on Main Street at 10 a.m.

FIREMAN'S BALL

Tickets are still available for the Fireman's Ball which is on April 7 at the Rim. This is your chance to meet our volunteer firemen so be sure

You are also reminded that weekly church services are held at the Anglican church every Sunday at 9 a.m.

THE LAST ROUND-UP (Gibbons Senior Citizens)

A regular meeting of the Last Round-up was held in the Dew Drop Inn March 22. There were 41 present and 37 members answered the roll call. There was one out of town visitor, Adelia Gervais of Lac La Biche who is visiting friends at Bon Accord and three residents from the Manor.

Pam McFarland from Nagele Tours who handed each a brochure on future planned trips and then showed slides of San Francisco and Yellowstone Park. We were all given a draw on a one day free tour, Aurore Lamoureux being the lucky winner. Anyone interested in these trips can contact Cathie Shaw at 998-3088 for more details.

A few games of bingo were played for grocery prizes with Joe Hostyn calling all the right numbers.

A short business meeting followed. A thank you card from Jean Blom was acknowledged. Emily reminded us about the workshop to be held at Bon Accord in the Jewel Box on Friday, March 30 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Alvin brought an invitation from the Golden Gems at Bon Accord to join them in a Reader's Theatre on Tuesday, April 3, at 2 p.m. in the Jewel Box.

On March 9 - 11 the 1st and 2nd Gibbons Brownie packs held a joint winter camp at Coronado Church.

On March 24 the 2nd

Gibbons Brownies enjoyed a bowling trip to Namao. Thank you to the parents who made this trip possible.

Important notice

Parents of Gibbons at the time of this writing, we have only three coaches. This isn't sufficient for our needs as the town is growing so fast.

Since we started in 1976 with one soccer field and 40 players we have grown steadily, last year our enrolment was close to 125 and we now have three fields. All this has been done by volunteer helpers putting in a lot of hours.

The last advertisement we ran two weeks ago, produced no response at all, this is fine if you don't want your child to play, but on registration night if there is no coach for his or her age group, there will be no team.

So once again, if you would like to coach minor soccer, please phone Geoff Jones at 923-2343.

Invitation to Tender Gibbons Recreation Board

Tenders are invited from Community Groups and Private Concerns for the cutting of underbrush, cleaning and general clean-up of Recreation Land on 47 Street West of the Auto Court. To be completed May 1, 1979.

All tenders will be addressed to the Gibbons Recreation Board, Box 164, Gibbons, Alberta, T0A 1N0 and will be accepted no later than April 15, 1979. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all tenders and will not necessarily accept the lowest tender.

Rapid canola conversion spurs Western industry

The development of canola rapeseed varieties by plant geneticists "... set the stage for what could be considered a modern miracle in agricultural food production," according to Ken Sarsons, chief executive officer of CSP Foods Ltd.

In his presentation to the annual convention of the Rapeseed Association of Canada in Montreal on Wednesday (March 14, 1979), Mr. Sarsons discussed the remarkable speed with which canola has achieved acceptance in Canada and the rapidly escalating interest in canola products around the world.

The use of rapeseed for edible oils and animal feed ingredients was long restricted because of excessive erucic acid and glucosinolate levels found in these products. But this all changed in the early 1970's, said Mr. Sarsons.

"Scientists in Agriculture Canada and the universities had achieved the capability to redesign the genetic characteristics of rapeseed to achieve the best nutritional purposes in the product. And the industry was ready with the technology and marketing capability to place these advantages in the hands of consumers."

"It is very difficult to change food production, seed supplies, agricultural practices and processing practices that involve many thousands of people," Mr. Sarsons added.

"Yet, in two years in the early 70's, the western rapeseed industry converted to improved varieties that virtually eliminated the erucic acid component in the oil and increased the oleic and linoleic content to improve the polyunsaturated and monoglyceride content of the oil."

Mr. Sarsons credits the rapid conversion to a co-operative effort spearheaded by the Rapeseed Association of Canada and involving government and university scientists and technologists, nutritionists, dieticians, the western Canadian oilseed crushing industry and rapeseed growers on the prairies.

To recognize the achievement and to distinguish the new seed from earlier rapeseed varieties, the Western Canadian Seed Crushers Association recently registered the name canola for the improved double-low rapeseeds and their products -- low erucic acid canola oil and low glucosinolate canola meal. The new name has been endorsed by the Canadian Rapeseed Association.

With canola, a western agricultural and food manufacturing industry has matured according to Mr. Sarsons. Canola has become the second largest cash crop for western farmers, he said.

adding that canola oil is now the leader in terms of domestic consumption, accounting for approximately 40 percent of the vegetable oil consumed in this country.

Mr. Sarsons stressed the importance of this industrial development. "The 130 million kilograms of canola oil consumed in Canada last year provided domestic supply that would otherwise have cost the Canadian economy $75 million to import at current market prices," he said.

"The utilization of approximately 220,000 tons of canola meal in animal feed formulation saved imports of about $33 million," he added. "And the 660,000 tons of canola seed crushed in Canada represents a total factory value of about $240 million."

The development of canola oil and canola meal has generated considerable interest in export markets as well. "Interest in the European Economic Community has escalated considerably and improved our exports within the last 12 months," said Mr. Sarsons. "And vegetable oil-short nations like India, Bangladesh, Morocco and Algeria are keenly interested."

Serious dislocation of exports

The emergence of non-Board grains as important export commodities from the West Coast is creating problems and risks for grain handlers and exporters.

Alberta Wheat Pool observes that the pressure is causing several agencies to behave inconsistently and creating risks which Canada's hard-pressed transportation system cannot afford.

During the crop year, August 1 - February 28, rapeseed exports are up by 64% over the same period one year earlier. Flaxseed exports are 108% higher. The total exports of flax and rapeseed in the current year are 61% of barley exports to date, an historic high. At this time, wheat and durum exports are lower than one year ago; barley is up slightly.

The increased proportion of non-Boards being exported means that companies may be cutting corners in order to obtain shipping space. Grain cars for both Board and non-Board shipments must be allocated by the Canadian Wheat Board. In a time of short supply both types of grain suffers. Demurrage payments on ships destined to receive both Board and non-Board grain are being assessed. Demurrage on ships loading wheat, oats or barley is directly payable by the Canadian Wheat Board and indirectly by the producers, through their final payment. Demurrage on ships loading non-Board grains such as rapeseed is for the account of the exporter.

In the case of farmer-owned companies such as XCAN, it is an indirect charge against the producers who sell to the Pool elevators. Independent exporters pass the costs of such demurrage to suppliers, usually the grain companies.

The Canadian Wheat Board requires that a grain sale exist and a vessel be nominated for an estimated date before grain cars can be assigned. This system is intended to use available shipping space to best advantage. Its success depends on the integrity of companies operating in the Canadian grain scene. Phantom sales would lead to cancelled vessels and in turn to grain in terminals for an extended time.

The system does not apply to producer cars. Some agencies are apparently encouraging producer car shipments of rapeseed. Such lots are privately held in terminals in hopes of obtaining a premium when vessels are docked and supplies short. Of the 31,400 tons of rapeseed in Pacific Terminals

March 8, 5,000 tons were unavailable for shipment because warehouse receipts were in "private hands." In this crop year 2,025 grain cars have gone to Vancouver sent by shippers other than those designated to ship to the terminal.

According to The Grain Shipper's Clearance Association three vessels, The Golden Trinity, World News and Ever Honour approved February 21 - 24 had not cleared port on March 7. The three vessels had called at a total of 17 berths. Though sufficient clean stock was in store the terminal ready to load, the vessels could not be completed because the oilseeds were owned by other than the terminal.

Alberta farmers whose delivery quota of barley is disturbingly low and whose export facilities at Vancouver are being seriously inhibited have reason for seriously objecting to the practices used.

Something new for spring

From Alberta Agriculture we have a new Sewing Rainwear workshop. Norma Clark will be instructing this workshop for people who can already sew, and want to make a raincoat or jacket for a man, woman or child using waterproof fabric.

She will be teaching techniques in seam finishing, collar and/or cuff application, set-in or raglan sleeves, zipper application and the use of fusible interfacing.

Dangerous habits for youngsters to learn

By Margarette J. Atkinson
Looking out my front window the other day I noticed a young boy on his mini-bike. That's fine indeed, but his actions while driving this mini-bike were so extremely dangerous that I was deeply shaken.

He was stunting, spinning the rear end of the machine so violently around it almost shot out from under him. He was using all of his strength just to hang on to the handle bars. This all took place on 47 Street and 46 Avenue in Gibbons.

I wonder if his parents taught him the proper way to handle a motorized vehicle?

There have also been a number of times I've had to go out and tell boys to remove their hockey nets from traffic lanes out here. Especially when the roads were so icy and those trucks were travelling to and from the new housing developments. I once had to get up on the curb to avoid one of those nets and a child running to the side of it.

What is wrong with clearing your backyard a bit and teach the children to play where it is safe for the children as well as the drivers?

Safe habits develop during the growing years and are just as easy to develop in the minds of children as are bad habits. Which set of habits do you choose for your children? A chance for a safe future or perhaps a scrap of humanity under a heap of bent metal or another statistic crushed behind a shattered windshield?

Aren't our children's lives worth our time to teach them right from wrong? They are only young once and very nice kids. You'll respect them more if you can take time to show your love.

Blueberry industry optimistic

The Canadian blueberry industry has a promising future. Agriculture Canada economist Bob Anderson says production is increasing, export markets are opening up in Europe, and, with more promotion, domestic sales could also expand.

The economist says that with higher prices for strawberries, cherries and raspberries, blueberries now are more competitive in the Canadian market. On the export scene, the value of frozen blueberry exports increased from $2.2 million in 1969 to $9.3 million in 1977. The major market is the United States, but West Germany, the Netherlands, France, Norway, Sweden and Japan have made large purchases of frozen blueberries in the past few years.

Dr. Anderson tells growers and processors that the future looks bright provided they have good marketing programs to take advantage of the blueberry industry's potential.

Girls field hockey returning

Any girls interested in the growing sport of field hockey will have another chance to compete this year, as the Hercules Sports Association will once again have the sport under its guidance.

Last year, there was one team of senior women playing in the Edmonton league.

This year, under the direction of Heather Loudon, it is hoped there can be a junior team as well, and if there is enough interest, a community house league.

An added incentive is the fact that the Zone in which St. Albert lies was the champion team in field hockey at the last Alberta Summer Games in Red Deer. Heather said that it would be great for many of the St. Albert field hockey players to return to help defend their title at the Games.

No registration is planned at present, but if you are interested in playing field hockey, phone Heather at 987-3281.

Camrose clips Pontiacs in Provincial final

By Marty O'Kell
The Juvenile A Provincial Playoffs were held in St. Albert last week, with the final between the Camrose Stampeders and St. Albert Ron Hodgson Pontiacs taking place on Sunday afternoon at the Akinsdale Arena.

The Camrose club came away undefeated in the Provincial tourney, capping the streak with a good effort in the final game against the Pontiacs. The Stampeders beat the Ron Hodgson team 3-1 in the final, in a game enjoyed by about 150 fans. The contest was a fairly rugged affair in the first period, with both teams levelling good, clean body checks against each other. The last half of the contest featured some good end to end hockey, with the Stamps showing some tight forechecking that kept the Pontiacs from mounting any kind of sustained attack.

Camrose netminder Darren Stang came up with a superb performance in the final game, stopping many shots that were measured for goals. Stang received the Reimer trophy for Most Valuable Player in the overall tournament.

The Pontiacs Collin Parayko received a second Reimer Trophy in the Most Gentlemanly Player category.

Camrose opened up the scoring with the first periods only goal. Dale Kendall fired that goal in, assisted by Pat Trautman.

The second period saw the Stampeders take a 3-0 lead on goals by Dave Van Slyke and Cam Sawchuk.

In the third period, the Pontiacs began putting on some pressure in the last few minutes, and Keith Heyburn blasted a slapshot from the left wing to put the Pontiacs on the scoreboard with just over three minutes left in the game.

Nu-West Canadians capture the Provincial Pee wee A championship

At the closing ceremony after the completion of the Pee wee "A" Provincial Championship tournament in Lloydminster, the president of Lloydminster Minor Hockey Association Mr. Vic Smith's opening statement went like this:

"Have a good look at this St. Albert pee wee hockey team. Ain't they something. It will be a long time before you will see anything like them again."

That statement reflected the general feeling in the Lloydminster Civic Centre Sunday night after a week-end of hockey which saw the Nu-West Canadians Pee wee "A" hockey club of the St. Albert Kinsmen Minor Hockey Representative Division capture the Alberta Provincial Pee wee "A" championship after a convincing 13-3 win over the Red Deer Cairns Comets.

The Pee wee "A" provincial championship tournament was held in Lloydminster, Alberta during March 23, 24 and 25 with the following zone winners participating: Zone 1 - Peace River Elks Pee wee's; Zone 2 - Fort Saskatchewan A & W Nickel Kings; Zone 3 - St. Albert Nu-West Canadians; Zone 4 - Red Deer Cairns Comets; Zone 5 - Lethbridge H.T.H. Cabinets; Zone 6 - Medicine Hat Cowboys; Host - Lloydminster Co-op All Stars.

The seven teams were divided into two divisions with the division winners meeting for the one game final for the championship.

The Canadians qualified for the final by winning over Fort Saskatchewan Friday by a 10-4 score and over Lethbridge Saturday with a 16-3 score.

In Friday's game against the Fort Saskatchewan A & W Nickel Kings, the Canadians got off to a good start when they scored two unanswered goals in the first period. The Ft. Saskatchewan squad were very much in the game and Brent Sedgewick in St. Albert's goal came up with some super saves to keep the net clean.

In the second period the Nickel Kings opened the scoring and put on the pressure, but gradually the Canadians took over and at the end of the stanza the score was 6-3 in favour of the Canadians. The third period was all Canadians and they scored four goals while the Kings only managed one goal on a breakaway after the Canadians got caught with everyone up.

The final score was 10-4. On the penalty side the Canadians received eight minors against six to the Fort. On the scoring side for the Canadians Todd Cannelley, who also was selected the most valuable player for the Canadians, scored four goals and had three assists. The entire team put in a super effort and all played well.

In Saturday's game against the Lethbridge H.T.H. Cabinets the Canadians dominated throughout the periods and were actually never really challenged. The Lethbridge club did not measure up to the standard you would expect to see in a provincial final. As Coach Rusnak said after the game it is very difficult to coach such a game as you don't really know what to tell your players.

Saints season comes to a halt

The 1978/79 Alberta Junior "A" Hockey League season came to an unexpected halt for the Junior Saints last week as they lost their final two games of the three team round-robin playoffs.

Saints had won their opening two games as they took a 6-4 win over Calgary Canucks and then had no trouble with the visiting Fort Saskatchewan Traders as they came up with a 6-2 win.

Canucks then visited the Akinsdale arena last Tuesday and the Saints needed only a win or a tie to insure them of making the league best of seven finals but they were completely humiliated and lost 7-1.

Saints then travelled to the Fort on Wednesday night, and although they played much better, still lost to the Traders by a 6-3 score, with the final Trader goal into the empty net.

In spite of the two losses the Saints were still in the running as the Traders, with two wins and a loss, had to travel to Calgary and a Trader win or a loss by less than six goals would still have put the Saints into a playoff berth. Such was not the case as the hometown Canucks took the high scoring game by a 9-6 score and the Saints playoff hopes went down the drain.

The best of seven league final has already seen two games played with each club winning their home game with the Canucks taking the first 4-3 and the Traders the second in the Fort Sunday by a 8-6 score.

No playoff game was played Monday but the series resumed last night in Calgary and will go each night there after until one of the teams has won four games.

Calgary's 5-1 win over the Saints Tuesday was a direct result of some very untimely penalties to the St. Albert crew as the Canucks scored three power-play goals. Saints took 12 of 18 minor Please Turn to Page B 14

Saints

Mark Magnan scored the lone Saint goal early in the second period after the Canucks had a 2-0 lead on goals by Gord Pattison and Mel Hewitt. After 40 minutes of play, Calgary led 4-1 with Todd Scott and Lyle Stokoteln scoring. Ron Head added two more in the third while Hewitt added his second of the game.

Saints managed only 17 shots on the Canuck goaltender Bill Tkachuk while Brian Ford was called on to make 26 saves.

Wednesday night in the Fort saw the opening whistle delayed while the Trader officials were trying to have Saints Guy Bohmer ejected for presumably injuring defenceman Sheldon Geary, either by an elbow or stick to the back in the pre-game warm-up.

The league's northern director Chuck Farquason was on hand but did not see the altercation. After speaking to a number of witnesses he felt that he could not make a proper decision because of conflicting statements. In any event, the Traders played the game under protest and it is not known what the outcome of the league's position is at time of press.

Saints opened the scoring with only 4.04 gone in the first period on a goal by Troy Murray. Traders came back with a goal by Ian McLelland at 14.52 to tie the game but Breen Neeser's goal at 15.18 gave St. Albert a 2-1 lead. Just 25 seconds later the Fort again drew even on a goal by Keller. Mike Ferris gave Traders the lead for the first time at 17.35.

Perry Turnbull scored the only goal of the middle period to make it 4-2 for the Traders. Mickey Volcan rushed the length of the ice and beat Malarchuk with a wrist shot at 8.07 of the third to pull the Saints to within one goal, but Ferris's second of the night at 14.10 put it out of reach.

Saints coach Doug Messier then pulled his goaltender with only a few seconds left in the game and the Traders

John Ewasjuk scored the final goal into the empty net.

Referee Jim Beaudry, who did not have one of his better games, assessed the Saints 8 of 12 minor penalties. Saints outshot the Traders 30-26.

The following night in Calgary saw the Traders lose 9-6 to the Canucks and it marked the end of the season for the Saints.

The Saints management and players would like to take this opportunity to thank their many fans for their support throughout the season and hope to see them back next season.

Nu-West

Continued From Page B 13 Canadians team got on the scoreboard including the Nu-West Canadians goaltender Scott Neil who got two assists. Neil who played a fine game when called upon was not to be blamed for the three goals scored against him as they in most cases were scored on breakaways or two and three against one defenceman. Emanuel Viveiros was named the most valuable player for the Canadians, an honour that was well deserved as he played a super game. As a matter of fact the whole team played a super game. The Canadians picked up five minor penalties from a total of eight levied throughout the game.

In Sunday's championship game the Canadians met the Red Deer Cairns Comets. Before the game there was great expectation as to the outcome, as the Red Deer club had shown good promise during the qualifying rounds. But after five minutes of play with the Canadians leading with 2-0 the eventual outcome became obvious. The Canadians were a class above the Red Deer club. At the end of period one the score was 4-0 in favour of St. Albert. After two periods of play the score was 7-0.

In the third period the Canadians relaxed a bit and the result was that the Red Deer Cairns Comets scored two goals in quick succession at the five and six minute marks. The Canadians woke up and scored twice before the Comets again got on the board with five minutes left in the game; due to some sloppy defensive play by the Canadians. After that the Canadians got uptight and over a span less than three minutes they scored four goals. The Comets scored their final goal with 26 seconds left on the clock, for a final score of 13-4.

Todd Ewen was named the most valuable player for the Canadians with a four goal, three assist effort. Brent Sedgewick played excellent in St. Albert net whenever he was called upon.

In the penalty department St. Albert took six minors and Red Deer took two.

After the game there was a small presentation by the president of the Lloydminster Minor Hockey Association, Vic Smith, in which he thanked both teams and the Lloydminster Minor Hockey Association members for their effort in making the tournament the success it was. The referees, timekeepers and goal judges also received a well deserved thanks.

Each boy from both teams then received a medal for their participation in the final and the Canadians Captain Emanuel Viveiros received the trophy on behalf of the club. This was a most befitting ending of a very successful season for the boys as they remained undefeated in regular season play and playoffs.

The Pontiacs lost their opener on Friday by an 8-2 score to Red Deer. St. Albert goals came from Heyburn and Brad Hancock. Heyburn was also selected M.V.P. for St. Albert in the game.

The Pontiacs played one game on Saturday, that against Brooks. The locals won the cliffhanger by a 3-2 count. Heyburn picked up two goals while the single went to Winquist. Scott Holliday was picked as the St. Albert entry's M.V.P.

KEITH HEYBURN

Keith Heyburn notched five goals in Provincial Playoff Tourney.

On Sunday, the Ron Hodgson crew battled Sherwood Park, and came away with a 5-3 win. John Provencal lead the Pontiacs with a pair of goals, with single going to Jeff Harmon, Bob Crawford and Heyburn. Netminder Scott Gannon received the M.V.P. award for the Pontiacs in this game.

Camrose beat Sherwood Park 8-5. Leduc 4-2 and Red Deer 4-1 to get to the final.

The Pontiacs are currently involved in Hwy. 14 league finals in a best of five series against the Sherwood Park Jets. The Jets won the first game last week by a 6-3 count. The second game was played last night, but results weren't in at press time.

Game three goes tonight in the Park, with the fourth game (if necessary) at Akin-sdale Arena Thursday night. A fifth game would take place Friday in Sherwood Park.

Marty O'Kell On Sports

WITH ALL THE CONFUSION FROM LAST WEEK, it appears the big IF is striking again.

Just like John Travolta says on Welcome Back Kotter, "I'm so confused." There are so many "ifs" concerning this NHL-WHA merger, if you can call it a merger.

A lot of Edmonton area hockey fans have been turning their heads towards the Edmonton Oilers in the last two years. The team has been playing very entertaining hockey, in fact, so have the other WHA teams. It seems to be more entertaining than the NHL brand. I for one, have been a Montreal Canadiens fan for years. But in the past couple of years, it has been extremely difficult for me to keep my eyes on the tube during NHL telecasts.

Now I'd rather skip up to the Coliseum and catch an Oiler contest.

Getting back to the ifs. Many fans are quite concerned that the "merger" is going to deplete the Oilers to a point that we'll end up with another Vancouver Canuck type of team. This could be true. But...with the ifs thrown in, the Oilers could remain BASICALLY the same as the team at present. That's only if the ifs take form.

With the ruling that a WHA team can protect two goalies and two skaters only in entering the NHL, it appears the Oilers will protect, of course, Wayne Gretzky and B.J. MacDonald. The goalies would be Dave Dryden, and Eddie Mio. Several Oilers are not on the lists of NHL squads, like Stan Weir, Brett Callighen, Bill Flett, Bill Goldworthy, Ace Bailey, Hannu Kamppuri, Ed Walsh, Jim Neilson and Claire Alexander. This list alone shows that with the protected players, the Oilers have four goalies, some week defencemen, and a few decent to good forwards.

The big IF starts to work its way into the picture.

The key to Edmonton having a competitive team will be left up to two NHL teams, Montreal and Philadelphia.

The Montreal Canadiens own the rights to Joe Micheletti, a good defenceman and forward when need be. They also own the rights to Dave Hunter, who they touted quite highly at last year's junior draft. The stipulation in this merger is that an NHL team must play the WHA players it picks up. The player can't be traded or sent to the minors for two years. So...this is going to make some of the NHL teams think twice before they begin grabbing WHA players. For instance, Montreal is loaded with good defencemen, so can they afford to pick up Micheletti? I doubt it. And Hunter, who happens to be a hell of a checker, may not make the team right now. So the Canadiens would have to drop someone relatively good to make room.

The Flyers from Philly hold the NHL rights to Ron Chipperfield and Dennis Sobchuk. Some scouting reports have it that Chipper can't skate too well, and Sobchuk...well, he's had some injuries and isn't in the form he could be in. If Philadelphia doesn't pick up these two players, and the Habs don't take Micheletti and Hunter, the Oilers team will have a good core to work from in their first NHL season.

Having four netminders is good too. It means the Oilers can trade for a defenceman, which they could use.

It would appear that Al Hamilton, whose rights are owned by Buffalo, will stay with the Oilers. Hamilton is "getting on" in his years, and his slightly "off" vision might back the Sabres off. Paul Shmyr probably won't be going back to Minnesota, as he's no spring chicken either.

If you want to throw in a third team, the New York Islanders have the rights to Dave Langevin, a defenceman. An improving defenceman who the Oilers would dearly love to keep. The Islanders have a fairly young and reliable defensive corps, and they are on top in the NHL at the moment. Can they afford to pick up Langevin and drop one of their own players?

All these ifs might leave the Oilers with about 75% of their present squad intact. But then...if they can't keep three or four key players, it will be a tough season ahead.

In my opinion, the NHL made a stupid move by letting the four WHA teams, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Quebec and New England, keep only four players. What they are doing is creating four more teams comparable to the Chicago Black Hawks or Detroit Red Wings. The NHL doesn't need that.

Maybe they are afraid that the four WHA teams in question could beat at least half of the NHL teams quite consistently.

I guess we'll just have to wait till the draft, and see what takes place. If you're confused...join the club. It's getting bigger each day.

Tomahawks win Enoch Jr. 'B' tournament

Two goals by all-star centre Breen Neeser paced the Enoch Tomahawks to a 7-4 win over Fort Saskatchewan Hawks in the final game of "A" event in the first annual Enoch Jr. "A" hockey tournament. Enoch went through the 12-team tournament without a loss as they won their opener over Hinton Northwest Cardinals 7-3 and then upset the highly touted Sherwood Park Knights 8-3.

Tomahawks then received a bye into the final.

Fort Saskatchewan playing with only eight or nine skaters also came up with some surprises as they won their opener with a 6-4 win over Grande Prairie and then shocked Saskatoon Quakers 6-1. Quakers are the Saskatchewan Jr. "B" champions. Fort also defeated Devon Drillers 6-4 in the semi-final to reach the "A" final.

Saskatoon Canadiens defeated Grande Prairie North Stars 4-3 to win the "B" event.

The final of "A" event saw the Tomahawks take a 1-0 lead on Pat Poulin's goal early in the first period although the Hawks came back to tie it midway through the period on a goal by Tracy Butler.

PAT POULIN

Keith Sarich and Mike Kerwin scored late in the first period to give the Enoch squad a 3-1 lead.

Dan Brown scored on a goal-mouth scramble early in the second to put the Tomahawks out in front 4-1 but Roland Bishop's goal a few minutes later made it 4-2.

Neeser scored the first of his two goals (and it proved to be the winner) midway through the period to put the Tomahawks ahead 5-2. Both clubs scored late in the period with Myles Wasik blinking the light for Enoch and Tim Haycock for the Fort.

Both clubs again traded goals in the third with Neeser scoring on a breakaway and Haycock from the slot on a powerplay.

Goaltending was excellent on both teams despite the 11 goals scored and Peter Jones of the Fort was judged the best goaltender of the series.

Bill Hime came up with a number of fine saves in the Tomahawk net and kept the Enoch team in the game during the first few minutes of the game.

BREEN NEESER

Neeser made the All-Star team at centre ice while team-mates Pat Poulin was the right winger and Myles Wasik earned a spot on the defense.

defense. Tracy Butler from the Fort was the tournament's most valuable player.

Enoch Coach Bill Laforge, along with management and players, would like to thank the many fans who took in the tournament and hopes that the event will become the top junior "B" event of the year.

RMC Saints win Rocky Mountain B side

On Sunday evening the RMC Sports Centre Saints returned from the 7th annual Rocky Mountain House pee-wee tournament as winners of the B side of the competition. After losing their opening game, the Pee-wee BB Saints dropped to the B side and won their final two games to pick up their trophies.

The Saints were edged by Sherwood Park in the opener, but came back to knock off two different Calgary teams on the same day of the 16-team tourney.

PARK SLIPS BY SAINTS

The first game of the tourney for the Saints had them up against Sherwood Park and they were edged 5-4. The Saints got off to a slow start by falling behind

1-0 in the first period, but came back late in the frame to tie it up. Tim Korz had the honors, set up by Trent Rees.

In the second period both clubs fired two goals each to close the score at 3-3. On one St. Albert goal, Brent Webber broke in on the Park goalie from the left wing and deked him before slipping the puck into the net. Webber was put in the clear by Darryl Ethier and Wilf Keiser. The other goal came from Ethier on a set-up by Don Bremault.

In the third period Sherwood Park scored two quick goals and the Saints never recovered. The Saints came back with a goal late in the period to come within one goal of the Park. The Saints fourth goal was scored by Keiser on a pass from Bremault.

St. Albert put on the pressure for the final three minutes of the game but couldn't come up with the tying goal. The game ended with St. Albert on the losing end of a 5-4 score.

Game stars were picked by the tournament committee after each game, and boys selected received engraved medallions. Trent Rees was picked the St. Albert star for putting on a fine two-way performance.

SAINTS SHOCK LAKE BONAVISTA

On Sunday morning the RMC Saints made up for their loss the night before by taking it out on the highly regarded Lake Bonavista team from Calgary. When the final buzzer went off, St. Albert was an 11-1 victor and had advanced to the B final.

The Saints led 3-0 after one period and increased that lead to 5-1 after two. In the final frame, the Saints exploded for six unanswered goals to ring up the 11-1 victory.

TRENT REES
Star of first game

The big gun for the Saints was Gord Trembath who potted a hat trick. Korz was right on his heels as he fired two goals. Singles were picked up by Stan Black, Mike Holzer, David Laplante, Eric Olson, Rees and Keiser. Black and Holzer led in the assist column with two helpers each. Single assists went to Billy Mitchell, Olson, Rees, Greg Amyotte, Webber and Laplante. Todd Shaw was in goal for the Saints and blocked 14 shots from the Calgary team.

The two St. Albert players to be picked as stars at the end of this game were Billy Mitchell and Tim Korz. Both skated miles for the team.

BILLY MITCHELL
Second game star
RMC BLANKS
HUNTINGTON HILLS

In the B final game the Saints faced the Huntington Hills squad, also from Calgary, and blanked them 6-0 to win the B trophy.

DON BREMAULT
Selected third game star

The Saints led 1-0 after the first period and added one more in the second to lead 2-0 after two.

Once again in the third period the Saints took over and blasted four goals by the Calgary netminder to cement the 6-0 win.

The big gun for RMC was defenceman Keiser, who shifted into high gear and potted two goals. His partner on defence, Don Bremault, added a single.

The other goals came off the sticks of Holzer, Webber and Korz.

Ethier led the way with assists as he helped on two goals. Singles went to Jim Alpaugh, Amyotte, Trembath, Holzer and Keiser.

Todd Cunningham and Todd Shaw combined in goal to block 19 Huntington shots. Rees and Korz combined to kill numerous penalties early in the game. Defenceman Joel Borle stopped many scoring thrusts throughout the contest as the whole team jelled to come up with a strong victory. Bremault and Keiser received medallions as the two stars from the Saints.

The whole weekend was a tremendous success as the tourney ran like clockwork. The boys were billeted with families in Rocky Mountain House and that added to their enjoyment of the tournament.

Coaches Ed Alpaugh and Ovila Amyotte were happy with the team's success in Rocky Mountain House, and now are preparing the boys for another 16 team tourney in Edmonton this weekend. Hopefully the boys will enjoy the same success.

Peewees needed for Lacrosse

Pee-wee registrations are still needed if St. Albert is going to enter a pee-wee team in the Edmonton and District Lacrosse League this year. The St. Albert Lacrosse Association has had plenty of bantam (13 and 14 years old) registrants and several novice (9 and 10) registrants, but still needs a few novices and quite a few pee-wees. Any boy or girl born between January 1/67 and December 31/68 is urged to register at either RMC Sports Centre or the St. Albert Sportshop.

With a few more novice registrants, the SALA will be able to enter an experimental non-contact lacrosse league for that age group in the Edmonton district. Boys or girls born January 1/69 or later should register as soon as possible.

In addition to those teams and the bantams, St. Albert midget players will be playing lacrosse this year, but in a combined St. Albert-North Glenora team. The midgets will meet three Edmonton and four Calgary clubs in an all-Alberta league this year.

In summary, players from ages nine to 16 who wish to try lacrosse in St. Albert should pick up a registration form soon. Practice sessions are continuing at W.D. Cuts School on Thursday nights. Novice and pee-wee groups go from 6:30 to 8, while bantams go from 8 to 9:30. Come and have a look.

Mite playoff finals

"A" FINAL

The first game on March

17th proved to be a very close exciting game with Cox's Plumbing and Heating Pipers defeating The Bay 3-2. The Pipers took a 2-0 lead into the second period on goals by Danny Keene and Otis Plageman. Jason Baba gave the Pipers a 3-0 lead in the second before M. Crosby narrowed the gap to 3-1. Kevin Welch made for an exciting finish with The Bay's second goal, however the Pipers held on for the victory.

The second game on Sunday, March 18 saw the Pipers' jump into an early lead on a goal by Darren Oko. Mark Johnston tied the game in the second period, however before the period ended, Otis Plageman and Jason Baba had given the Pipers' a 3-1 lead. Ian Steinke put the Pipers further ahead in the third. The Bay, showing great determination, came back with a goal by B. Edgett but could not get closer than the final 4-2 score.

Following the game Mr. Bill Duncan of Abacus Cities presented the trophies to the two teams.

Trophies were also presented to the Mite A leading scorer for the season Matt Pesklewis (Vikings) and the best goaltender award was shared by Pat Langabeer and Chris Hauck of the Pipers.

B FINAL

The first game of the series between Sturgeon Auto Body Bruins and the Dairy Queen proved to be rather one-sided with the Bruins winning 5-1 on goals by Donnie Paziuk (two), Greg Martin, Lore Ketsa and Trevor Taylor. W. Davidson scored the lone Dairy Queen goal.

The second game was a complete reversal with the Dairy Queen shutting out the Bruins 3-0. Mark Turnbull, W. Davidson and M. Maisonneuve scored for the winners. Gary Allinott had the shutout.

The deciding game of the series was played on March 19 in Perron Street Arena before a very noisy crowd of parents and fans. Unlike the first two games this one was very close. Greg Martin opened the scoring in the second period for the Bruins but the Dairy Queen came back with goals by W. Davidson and P. Byrne to end the period 2-1 in favour of the Dairy Queen. Both teams showed tremendous desire and effort in the third period but the game ended with the Dairy Queen still ahead 2-1 and thus became Mite B champs.

Once again Mr. Bill Duncan presented the trophies to both teams.

Trophies were also presented to the Mite B scoring leaders, Randy Naundorf (Oilers) and Donnie Paziuk (Bruins). Top goaltending was also shared, Darren Perrott and Gary Hefford (Bruins).

Mite A hosts Peace River

Last Saturday the Bay mite A team from the St. Albert House League hosted a Mite A club from Peace River. The resulting game was well played with the Peace River team coming out ahead on the scoreboard by a 6-4 score.

Mark Johnston of the Bay led the St. Albert team with a hat trick.

St. Albert House League Mite "A" Champs

Carma's edged in playoffs

St. Albert's Bantam Carma's left their league playoff scene in the semi-finals with a double overtime loss to Sherwood Park last Thursday at Perron Arena. The loss was the second overtime defeat for Carma's, separated by a win, in the three game series.

Though playing at home to an enthusiastic crowd, St. Albert got off to a bad start, as the Park grabbed two quick goals in the first minute and eight seconds. However, spirits recovered somewhat as John Findlay tallied an important goal just 26 seconds later, assisted by Mike Tessier and Mike Wells.

The next 15 minutes saw Carma's gradually take control from Sherwood Park, who let up from their earlier hard-skating style. With three minutes left, Erin Oor tied the game, with assists by John Lenz and John Holden.

The second period was evenly played, though Carma's outscored their visitors two to one, with both goals by Tony Rouault. Oor assisted both, while Lenz assisted once.

The exciting third period was closely played, though neither team really played well. The Park counted first, again tying the game. However, half a minute later, Tessier, with help from Findlay and Wells, put Carma's back ahead. Visions of a victory for St. Albert were dimmed three minutes later when Sherwood Park once again evened up the score. The balance of the frame was closely played but scoreless and the teams went to a 10 minute overtime period.

The first overtime frame, like most of the game was cleanly, though cautiously played. When no one managed to score, however, the game reverted to a 20 minute sudden death session.

Just a minute and a half later, league play came to an end for St. Albert when the Park put away the game at 6-5.

Local bowlers in playoffs

On March 18, the Provincial Youth Bowling Playoff was held in Edmonton with more than 50 teams involved.

The bowlers qualify by first winning a house round in their own bowling centre. From there, they bowl in a regional playoff, with the winners advancing to the Provincial finals.

Four teams and one "singles" representative from St. Albert's Grandin Bowl made it to the Provincials.

The bantam girls and junior girls teams came in third and were awarded Bronze medallions. The bantam singles girl, Angela Yates, came in second and received a Silver Medallion.

On the junior girls team that placed third were bowlers Jane MacLeod, Suzanne Regan, Laurel Skarlicki, Donna Dolinski and Colleen Brown. The bantam girls team that also won a Bronze consisted of Beverly Klassen, Krista Lux, Dawn DeChamplain, Tammy Pavlich and Lisa Patrick.

"SUPPORT YOUR FUTURE STARS"

Among the teams coming to the First Annual St. Albert Bantam Hockey Tournament, April 4 to 7, is the high flying Bay Drug Knights.

The Bay Drugs Knights Bantam Hockey Club is a member of the Maple Leaf Athletic Club, which is the oldest athletic club in Edmonton.

The club was founded in 1931 by Henry White, whose name is synonymous with minor sports in Edmonton. In its 48th year of operation, the club currently supports ten double "AA" hockey teams, (six bantam, three midget and one juvenile). Over the years, the club has been involved in junior football, baseball, softball and junior hockey. Last year, the club sponsored a club midget soccer team.

Graduating players of the M.L.A.C. program include such individuals as Ken McAulay, Norm Ullman, Johnny Bucyk, Bruce MacGregor, Jerry Melynk, Tom Bladon, Tony Currie, Rocky Saganik and Wayne Babych.

The Bay Drug team finished second in their league sporting a record of 24 wins, 4 losses and 2 ties. While doing so, the team scored an amazing 252 goals, an average of over eight goals per game; and allowed only 110 goals, an average of less than three per game.

The team is composed of boys living in Beverly Heights and Beacon Heights. This year, the team has five returnees, seven first year bantams and four players in their last year of bantam from the B hockey program.

Ken Yaremchuk set a new club record with 88 goals and 52 assists for 140 points. The outstanding center has a very promising career ahead of him, and will most surely one day will end up in the NHL.

Coached by Bill Bucyk, the team took an average of only eight minutes in penalties per game, this indicating they are a fast and hard skating club.

The Bay Drug team will definitely be worth the price of admission at the First Annual St. Albert Bantam Hockey Tournament.

Hercules to hold final registration

The Hercules Sports Association will be holding its final registration for soccer and fastball on Thursday, April 5. The registration will be held at the Wild Rose School, 58 Grenfell Avenue, from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

After this registration, there will be no more accepted for this season. Fees include a $5 penalty for being late, and prices are now $17 per player or $40 for a family.

Anyone wishing to play in the Hercules organization is urged to make sure you register at this time.

The Sherwood Park Bumpers Bantam Hockey Team is one of the better bantam teams in Alberta, and will provide great hockey action at the first annual St. Albert Bantam Hockey Tournament, to be held here April 4 to 7.

The Bumpers play their regular schedule in the Central Alberta Bantam League, and finished off the regular schedule with a 22-0-2 record. In league playoffs, Sherwood Park beat Camrose, then won a bye into the finals. The Bumpers beat St. Albert in the league finals.

In Provincial playoff action, the Bumpers beat Lloydminster and Fort Saskatchewan to win the zone title and in the Provincial finals defeated Grande Prairie, tied St. Albert, then clobbered Leduc in the final 11-1.

Coach Grant Quist said his team can play any style of hockey - whether it be a hard hitting type or the fast end to end brand. He added that his team has no "stars," or hot line, and that any given player can be the team leader on any given day.

Among the Bumpers accomplishments was winning the double AA side of the Chicoutimi, Quebec Bantam Hockey Tournament in February. The Sherwood Park team beat North Montreal 3-2 in overtime in the final game.

Quist says his well balanced club should "do well" in the upcoming St. Albert Tourney.

Junior Cowboy School in Calgary

The annual Calgary Exhibition and Stampede sponsored Junior Steer Riding School will be held in Stampede Park's Agriculture Pavilion on three successive evenings, April 16, 17 and 18.

Instructors experienced in rodeo competition will combine practical instruction with lectures on the use of equipment, technique, judging, scoring, safety and sportsmanship. Also, rodeo films will be shown.

Students between 8 and 14 years of age will be accepted on a first-come basis.

Nu-West Canadians win Peewee Hockey League championship

The Nu-West Canadians won the North Central Alberta Peewee A Hockey League championship Wednesday night, when they overpowered the Sherwood Park Dairy Queens for the second time in as many nights in a back-to-back playoff series. The score Tuesday night in Sherwood Park arena was 11-3 in favour of the Canadians and 8-3 in St. Albert's Akinsdale arena Wednesday.

The Canadians captured the title by winning three games and tying one in a total points four game playdown between Fort Saskatchewan A & W Nickel Kings, Sherwood Park Dairy Queens and St. Albert Nu-West Canadians. The Leduc club and the Strathcona Warriors had been eliminated earlier in the season.

The two games against Sherwood Park were both well played matches in which the Canadians had to come up with good efforts as the Sherwood Park team came up with some good competition. One of the big differences in Tuesday night's game was the Canadians ability to score when having a one-man advantage. The Canadians had eight powerplay opportunities during the game and took advantage and scored on everyone where as the Sherwood Park club only scored once on seven one-man advantages. The Canadians basic penalty killing unit consisting of Todd Carnelley, Emanuel Viveiros on defense and Ron Couture and Bobby Havens on offence deserve much credit for their consistency throughout the year as very few goals have been scored against them.

Leading the pack with points in Wednesday's game were: Todd Ewen 4 goals and 2 assists, Emanuel Viveiros with 3 goals and 3 assists, Todd Carnelley with 1 goal and 3 assists, Scott Rusnak with 2 goals and 1 assist, Bryan Oleson with 1 goal, Casey Wheatley, David Findlay and Ole Graversen each earned one assist.

In Wednesday's game the boys knew they had to win or tie to gain the championship as Sherwood Park had four points and St. Albert had five points in the playoff standings. The Canadians came out and dominated the play with Jimmy Hammett opening the scoring with an unassisted goal. His shot across the goal was deflected into the net after some hard work in the corner. Todd Ewen got goal #2 when he slammed in a Scott Rusnak rebound with Todd Carnelley gaining the second assist.

Casey Wheatley scored goal three with a good low drive after he was played free on the right wing with a good pass across the ice surface from Ole Graversen on left defense. Goal four was scored by Carnelley on a powerplay with assists going to Ewen and Emanuel Viveiros. Carnelley scored goal five after Ewen found him with a perfect pass, behind the outcoming Sherwood Park goaltender. Rusnak earned the other assist.

St. Albert's sixth goal was scored by Ewen when he managed to slide the puck under the goalie after he was tripped on a breakaway from the right wing with Carnelley setting him up. The Canadians seventh goal was scored by Rusnak when he banged in his own rebound during a goalmouth scramble.

The eighth and final goal was scored by Kent Lefebvre when he chipped in a Steven Gosse pass across the goalmouth with Hammett getting the second assist after some hard work in the corner.

Both Brent Sedgewick and Scott Neil, who shared the goaltending duties in the two games, came up great when called upon.

After the game a short presentation was made by the league governor Mr. Al Laplante, wherein he thanked the boys for their participation and congratulated both teams for making the finals. He presented the Nu-West Canadians Captain Emanuel Viveiros with the trophy and presented each individual with a trophy, first to the Sherwood Park team for making the finals, then to the St. Albert team for winning the championship.

NEW CURLING EXECUTIVE ELECTED

S.A.M.B.A. Ladies Auxiliary meeting

The annual general meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the St. Albert Minor Baseball Association has been set for Thursday, April 5 at the Percy Page Centre. Time of the meeting will be at 8 p.m.

auxiliary ran a concession during the opening day parade, held a bake sale, and held a dance in June. Plans for this year will be similar to that of last year's. Money raised through these ventures will be turned over to SAMBA.

FARLIE'S HAPPY WANDERERS

Barney and Marie O'Neill, of Calahoo, went to Hawaii with eleven (sorry, you can't count 'em, they live in B.C.) relatives last Christmas. They stayed at the Pacific Beach Hotel in Waikiki, which has an ocean view and kitchen facilities - perfect for the large group which included many nieces and nephews, says Mrs. O'Neill. She gives the hotel a high rating, saying security was good and the elevators carefully watched. There was plenty of entertainment for the young people and the weather was perfect. Mrs. O'Neill also praises Farlie Travel - particularly agents Jo-Anne and Shameen - and says they're so satisfied they've opened an account for future travels. Come in and get the Farlie treatment!

Oilers win on 'Cowboys' hat trick

The much booed Bill "Cowboy" Flett gave his critics something to holler about Sunday night in Cincinnati as the Edmonton Oilers edged the Stingers 6-5 with Cowboy getting three goals.

The excellent hockey game was marred by a bench clearing brawl in the first period as both teams joined in a preliminary bout between the heavyweight champ Dave Semenko of the Oilers and a battered Barry Legge from the Stingers.

When referee Ron Ego straightened out the first period bout, Stingers somehow lost the services of super-star Robbie Florek for being the third man in while the Oilers saw four of their players get 10 minute misconducts. In addition to Flett's three-goal performance, Oilers also had Joe Micheletti, Stan Weir and Brett Callighen blink the light.

Stingers who held the lead 5-4 going into the final period received goals from Florek, Jamie Hislop, Peter Marsh and Byron Shutt.

The win leaves the Oilers on top of the W.H.A. with 82 points, three ahead of the Quebec Nordiques who kept pace with a 3-2 win over Birmingham.

Oilers next five games are all on the road starting tonight in Quebec, Friday and Saturday in New England and then into Cincinnati Tuesday before moving to Quebec the following night.

Their next home game will be Friday, April 6 against the Whalers.

For Their Sake And Yours Do Not Disturb!

Wildlife are extremely sensitive.
Particularly young wildlife.

How you respond to wildlife could affect their safety and yours.

Here are a few tips:

- enjoy wildlife from a distance ... only
- never handle or disturb wildlife
- do not feed wildlife ... ever — they need special diets for their survival
- be especially careful not to disturb fish when spawning — they could abandon their spawning grounds
- when visiting Alberta's wildlands, leave nothing behind that could harm wildlife — pop can rings, glass, garbage, plastic bags

If you suspect an animal has been abandoned or injured, report the situation and approximate location to your local fish and wildlife officer. He'll make sure it's well taken care of.

MILES OFFSIDE?

No... but Tom Sokoloski had an easy time scoring this empty net goal in overtime to lead the Redwater Outlaws to an 8-6 win over the Legal Canadiens in the final series in the Sturgeon Valley Senior Hockey League playoffs. Redwater now leads the series three games to one.

The fourth game of the playoffs between Redwater and Legal took place Tuesday night in Redwater.

Legal opened up the scoring with a shot from Leo Provencal, the only goal in the first period.

Redwater retaliated in the second period with two goals from Mike Court and George Cook, putting the Outlaws ahead 2-1 at the end of the second.

The third period saw Rick and Leo Provencal score once each giving Legal a go-ahead score of 3-2. Daryl Roloff scored from the point to tie it at three apiece. The tie was again broken when Rick Provencal added a marker making it 4-3. Tom Sokoloski and Len Danyluk answered back with a goal each, pulling the Outlaws ahead 5-4. With six seconds remaining in the game R. Provencal tied it up, forcing the play into overtime.

The tie lasted barely a minute when in the overtime period Daryl Roloff beat goaltender Mike Gagne for his second goal of the night. John Wilson increased the lead with his goal at the 4:43 mark. Real Huot scored at 1:50 leaving Redwater with only a one point lead. Legal pulled their goalie in a last ditch effort to force the play into sudden death overtime. Tom Sokoloski cut short Legal's hopes of tying the game when he broke away from their defense and scored into the empty net.

It was a clean hard fought game with the only two penalties of the entire game going to Rick Provencal and Rick St. Martin, both of Legal.

Both goaltenders, George Bonneville (Redwater) and Mike Gagne (Legal) played extremely well in what was a fast paced hockey game. Redwater is now ahead in the series leading three games to one.

St. Albert Mite 'A' select team wins Ft. Saskatchewan

Elks tourney

On March 24 and 25 a select team from the St. Albert Mite A's travelled to Fort Saskatchewan to compete in the 4th annual Elks rep. team tourney.

The first game against the Sherwood Park Barons saw St. Albert off to a slow start, trailing 6-1 at the end of the second period. However in the third period St. Albert came back with five unanswered goals to end the period in a 6-6 tie. In the second overtime period with the nets empty, Matt Peskewicz fired the winning goal. Matt was awarded the M.V.P. award for the St. Albert team.

In their second game St. Albert came out flying and jumped into a 7-2 lead at the end of the second period and then coasted to a 9-5 victory over Leduc Falcons. David McKinley received the M.V.P. award.

Sunday's final saw St. Albert play a very tight game against the Sherwood Park Mohawks. The first period ended with St. Albert leading 2-1. In the second each team scored with the period ending 3-2 in St. Albert's favour. The third period was wide open, hard skating hockey with St. Albert going on to take the game 7-5.

The games three stars were Dana Shove and Otis Plageman of St. Albert and Brown from Sherwood Park.

Chosen as best defence-man of the tournament was Otis Plageman, Pat Langa-beer (St. Albert) was the top goaltender. Brown of Sherwood Park received the award for the best forward.

The win was a total team effort by the St. Albert boys who should also be congratulated for their conduct both on and off the ice.

French book exhibit

Alberta Culture and the Embassy of France are sponsoring a major exhibit and display of more than 1,000 books from France. The exhibit, to be held in the Music Room of the Edmonton Public Library from Saturday, March 24 to Thursday, March 29, was prepared by 43 major French publishers. Alberta Culture's involvement in the exhibit comes as a result of arrangements for cultural co-operation between the province and various nations around the world. The exhibit will be made up of four major sections:

books for children of all ages; books on France and its regions; books by Voltaire, Jean-Jacques Rousseau and Jules Verne and books on the teaching of French, both as a first and a second language.

The exhibit will provide an excellent overview of recent French publishing in these and other areas, and will give all those interested in France a rare opportunity to see and examine books of special interest to them.

The exhibit will be open during the following hours: Saturday, March 24 - 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sunday, March 25 - 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Thursday, March 26 through 29 - 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

USC KNITTING CENTRE IN BOTSWANA

The USC of Canada is donating $19,456 for the construction of a Knitting Centre in the Village of Kanye, Botswana, Southern Africa. The grant also includes the purchase of five knitting machines, furniture and stock, as well as covering salaries for the first three months training program. Knitters will be paid on a piece rate basis. The objective of the project is to provide local women with an income. USC headquarters is located at 56 Sparks Street, Ottawa.

STAGE DEBUT?

It's a good thing these two sell real estate for a living. They don't appear to be competent sign installers. Janet Williams and Rick Ringuette of A.E. LePage Melton Real Estate Ltd. were filming a commercial last week to announce a change in their company's name when the photographer caught them in this unusual pose. Notice the resemblance between Rick and TV's Gomer Pyle? Rick tells us it's just the hat.
